

صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ
وَالْآلِ وَسَلَّمَ

مختصر سیرت نبوی

Short Seerah Of Nabi

Composed By

مرتب

Dr Abu Umar Parvez Nakwa Umri
Madani

Publisher: Markaz Dar'ul Huda
Udupi India

Presented By : Dar'ul Huda Udupi

Seerat-e-Nabi ﷺ

Annotations and shortforms used in English translation

These short forms is purely used for convenience of reading and writing without any change of the meaning or context to how it is used in Islamic texts

Detailed phrase	Short form	Used as
Peace be upon Him	PBUH	Used alongside with Prophet or Messenger of Allah Peace be upon him
Razi allah ta'allah Anhuma	RZ	Used for Male companion or believing relative of Kareem Peace be upon him
Razi allah ta'allah Anha	RA	Used for female companion or relative of Nabi Kareem Peace be upon him

Seerat e Nabi ﷺ

Why should we read it?

Because it has lot of specialities :

1

1 First Specialty

This is a one of the Prophet's, the Greatest ever Leader's Factual history

2 Second Specialty

History of Humanity is fully captured all the phases of Prophet ﷺ Life

3 Third Specialty

Prophet's ﷺ life is best model for all human beings as he invited to his teachings by leading & Living by example

4 Fourth Specialty

Prophet's Biography proves his prophethood intellectually and through logical reasoning appeal

5 Fifth Specialty

Prophet's Biography teaches and enlightens all walks , talks, and professions of human's life

6 Sixth Specialty

Rabbania al masad : He was sent by Allah and his teachings are literally & factually from Allah and he did not added for altered anything

7 Seventh Specialty

Al-Wastia wal yasr: He was sent by Allah and his teachings are literally and factually from Allah and he did not added for altered anything

Sources of Biography of Prophet ﷺ

2

1
Qur'an Majeed

Tasfeerul Tabri, Tafseer Ibn-e Kaseer, Tasfeer Ibne Jozi, Dure Mansoor ul Suyuti

2
Hadees Nabawi

Sahih AlBukhari, Sahih Muslim, Mustadrak Hakim, Sanan Arba, Sannan, Kubra Lil Baheeqi, Masnad Ahmad

3
Kitab E Shamaiel

Ashamaiyelil Tirmizi, Shamaiel Anabi lil Buyuyi, Aladab Al mufradal Bukhari

4
Proofs of Prophethood

Dalaile Nabu'ah Al Baheeqi, Dalaile Nabu'ah Labi Nayeem Assubhani

5
Book of Characteristics

Al Qasasel Kubra al Suyuti, Sabeelul Huda walrashedululahimam Ashaami, Kitab e Qasaesul Ibne Sabh Al Sabee

6
Books of Biography

Al Rahiqul Maqtoom, Al Seeratal Nabuata Sahiha Doctor Reza Umri , Seerat Ibne Hasam

7
History of Harmain

Aqbaarul Makkah, Abu Al Waleed Muhammad Bin Abdallah Azarqi, Tareeq-e- Madinah – Ibne Bakarul Aqarul Umar Bin Saa

8
Books
of History

AlBadayah Wanahaya, AlKameel Fi Tareequl Bin Aseer, Tareequl AlRasul Wal Mamlook ul Muhammad Bin Jareer Tabri

9
Literary Books

Ashura was Shura'al Imam Ibin Qateeba, AlKaamil Fil Lughatwal Aaadab, AlAghani, AlAqd'al Fareed

Importance Of Seerat e Nabi ﷺ

3

1

Duty

Allama Ibn Qayyim says: It is obligatory for every Muslim to acquire the knowledge of Sirat, because it is based on the guidance and direction brought by the Messenger of Allah

2

Awareness

Study of Prophets' life brings clarity in gradual conditions, stages of ups and downs of Dawat-e-Islamia or Call toward Allah

3

Quran & Hadees

Studying Prophet's biography helps in understanding the holy Quran and hadiths.

4

Solving Problems

The appropriate solutions to the global problems faced by whole world lies in this.

5

Story

It is not just a biography of a personality, but it is a very important, interesting and useful story of the beginning and evolution of a civilization, a culture, a nation, a message of Human unity.

6

Best Example & model of life

If there is perfect example for humanity, then it is only in the personality of Messenger of Allah, may God bless him and grant him peace.

7

Source of Love

He who will know the morals and attributes of this Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) will surely love him

8

Peace and contentment

The spirit of defending the right is strengthened and the hearts get relief, peace and satisfaction.

9

Guidance

There is guidance for people from all walks of life in the Hayat Tayyaba of Prophet of Allah.

Why was Prophet ﷺ sent only in Arabia?

1 First Reason

God has created Arabia right in centre of 3 continents, Asia, Europe and Africa

2 Second Reason

If a single place has to be picked from the globe from where message and guidance can be easily spread to humanity it is surely Arabia which is right in the midst of

3 Third Reason

During Prophet's ﷺ era, Africa, Asia and Europe all had trade and financial relations from Arabia.

4 Fourth Reason

A call for guidance rising from the Arabian peninsula had all necessary accesses to be well transmitted to surrounding continents

5 Fifth Reason

All Surrounding superpowers at the time competed and fought each other inconclusively to gain control of the peninsula which helped the region to be independent

6 Sixth Reason

Arabs were closet to human ingenuity, brave, committed as such were ready to fight when Truth is established in all matters of life and submissive when truth is established

7 Seventh Reason

Place was enriching presence of Kabbah The house of Allah which was constructed by Ibrahim & Ismael Peace be upon them both

Objective of Prophet's ﷺ Mission?

1 First Objective

Call and Guide towards worship of one True God "Allah" - Quran Surah Nahl (16) Ayat (36)

2 Second Objective

Warning & Thought Pondering (Surah Kahaf:56)

3 Third Objective

Guiding Humanity with way-out of primary or spiritual conflict of life with a purpose towards living according to will of Allah (Quran Surah Nahl Ayat 64: 16:64)

4 Fourth Objective

Educating & Inspiring knowledge & Self purification with way of actions along with believe (Surah Jummah /2)

5 Fifth Objective

All Surrounding superpowers at the time competed and fought each other inconclusively to gain control of the peninsula which helped the region to be independent

6 Sixth Objective

Arabs were closet to human ingenuity, brave, committed as such were ready to fight when Truth is established in all matters of life and submissive when truth is established

7 Seventh Objective

Place was enriching presence of Kabbah The house of Allah which was constructed by Ibrahim & Ismael Peace be upon them both

1

Old Source

- 1) Kitab e Seerah wal Maghazi by Ibne Ishaq
- 2) Seerath By Bin Hisham
- 3) Altabqatul Kubrah – Mohammed Saad
- 4) Tareeq ul Rusul walmuluk by Mohammed bin Jareer Tabri (A Section of This book is specific for Seerah)
- 5) Juwamah AL Seerah by Ibn Hazm
- 6) Al Kamil fil Tareeq by Ibn Aseer(This is History Book and a Section of This book is specific for Seerah)
- 7) Zaad Ul Mauadafi Hadi Khair Ul Abad,Ibne Qayyim Al Jawziyya
- 8) Al Seeratul Nabuah – Al Hafiz Azahbi
- 9) Al Badyah Wanahaya by Ibne Kaseer(This is common history book with a section specific to Seerah)
- 10) Seerat – e – Rasool by Ibne Kaseer

2

New References

- 1) Al Seerath An Nabuah – Abul Hasan Nadvi
- 2) Feeqah Ul Seerah – Al Ghazali
- 3) Al Seerath An Nabuah – Adurush Wa Abur, Mohammed Aza Darwaza
- 4) Tahzeebe Seerah Bin Hisham by Abdus Salam Haroon
- 5) Al Raheeq Al Maqtoom, Safeeh UrRahman Mubarakpuri
- 6) Al Rasool Al Qaid Mehmood Shees Qatab
- 7) Tareequl Urf Fil Islam
- 8) Al Seeratul Nabuah – Jawad Ali
- 9) Al Fusool Fi Seeratal Rasool Ibne Kaseer Tahqeeq Mohammed Al Qatawaree
- 10) Al Seeratun Nabua Sahihya by Doctor Raza Umri
- 11) Al Saeertul Nabua Fi Su'al Masadral Saliha Mehdi Rizk Allah
- 12) Al Seeratul Nabua Kama Ja'at Fil Ahaddes ul Sahiha Shaik Suyan
- 13) Sahih Seeratul Nab'uah (Seeratul Zahbiya) Shaik Tarhooni
- 14) Sahih Seeratul Nab'uah – Shaik Albani

3

In Urdu Language

- 1) Al Seerath An Nabi – Alamma Shibli Numani
- 2) Muhseen e Insaaniyat - Nayeem Siddiqi
- 3) Asi Al Seer – Abdul Rauf
- 4) Rahmatulil Alameen Qazi Mohammed Suleman Manzoor Puri
- 5) Al Raheeq Al Maqtoom, Safeeh UrRahman Mubarakpuri
- 6) Al Seeratul Nabuah – Mehdi Rizq Allah.

Genealogy of Prophet Mohammad ﷺ

- ❑ The Lineage of Prophet Mohammed can be divided in 3 parts
 - ❑ First part is which health has been agreed upon scholars and historians is called “Ad’naan Tak Muntahi”
 - ❑ Second part Historians differs as some has paused and some are convinced as it continues from Ad’naan upto Prophet Ibrahim also called “Ibrahim tak Muntahi”
 - ❑ Third part where it certainly contains errors is from Prophet Ibrahim to Prophet Adam
- ❑ Mohammad Son of Abdullah, Son of Abdul Mutalib (Shaiba), Son of Hashim, Son of Umru, Son of Abdul Man’aaf (Mughaira), Son of Qusai, (Name Zaid), Son of Kilab, Son of Mur’aah, Son of Kaa’ab, Son of Loi, Son of Ghalib, Son of Fihr (Known as Quraish) Son of Ma’alik , Son of Nazr (Qais) Son of Kinanah, Son of Huzaimah, Son of Madarakh (Known as Amir), Son of Ilyas, Son of Muz’ar, Son of Nazaar, Son of Ma’ad, Son of Ad’naan

Genealogy of Prophet Mohammad ﷺ

Abraha, who was the governor-general of Yemen on behalf of King Najashi of Abyssinia, when he saw that the Arabs were performing Hajj to the Kaaba, he built a large church in Sana'a and wished that Arabs too turned for Hajj of this church

When a man of Banu Kinana came to know about this, he entered the church at night and pasted his najas (urine/ waste matter) on Centre or pulpit section of church.

When Abraha found out he became furious and mustered an army of 60 thousand to destroy the Kaa'ba. He also chose a mighty elephant for himself, The army consisted of either 9 or 13 elephants in total.

When he reached the valley of Mehsar between Muzdalifah and Mina, the elephant sat down and did not get up in spite of lot of trying to move towards Ka'ba, when it is directed towards East or South, it use to Ran but when turned towards Ka'aba it sat down and did not move at all and they were baffled by elephant's behaviour

In the meant time Allah sent a flock of birds (Sparrows or smaller), which dropped stones ike tares on army and with this itself Allah turned the entire army to likes of grain's ashes (When crop is removed it cover and waste is

These Birds Ababeel were like Qamri, each bird had three pebbles, one in its beak and two in its claws, the pebbles were as big as rice or pulse but whosoever was hit by it, it started to cutoff their limbs they died on spot like shreds.

On the other hand, Allah sent such a calamity on Abraha that his fingertips fell off and when he reached Sana'a he became like a chick, then his chest burst, his heart came out and he died.

It took place in the month of Muharram only fifty or fifty-five days before the birth of the Prophet Muhammad, so it is an event of late February or early March of 571 AD. In fact, it was a preliminary sign that Allah revealed to His Prophet and His Kaaba.

- The famous well in Masjid Haram Kabba is called Zamzam, which is located at a distance of 38 cubits from Ka'aba
- This is the same well that was taken out by Allah Almighty to quench the thirst of Prophet Ismail (peace be upon him) son of Prophet Abraham (Peace be upon him) when he was milk suckling baby in his mother's lap.
- Scholars agree that drinking Zamzam is mustahabb for men and those performing Umrah, and in general it is mustahabb and permissible for every Muslim to drink Zamzam in all situations, as stated in the Sahih hadith that
 - Prophet Mohammed (Peace be upon him) Drank the water of Zamzam (Sahih Bukhari)
 - Prophet Mohammed (Peace be upon him) said, it is blessed and food for the eater (Zamzam is blessed not just as drink but it fills you up like food) Sahih Muslim
 - As per one Narration, It is the cure for diseases - Al Tayasi
 - Prophet Mohammed (Peace be upon him) said, it is for the same purpose whatever it is ranked for.
- With the passage of time, this well was closed; But just before the birth of Prophet Mohammed (Peace be upon him) it was reinstated
- Abdul-Muttalib had a dream. I saw that he was being ordered to dig the well of Zamzam and in the dream, he was also told its location. After waking up, they began to dig and gradually the things that Banu Jarham had buried in the vicinity of Zamzam well when they left Makkah came to light. That is, there were swords, Armour and two golden deers. Abdul Muttalib melted swords for making door of Kabah and Fitted golden deers in door of Ka'ba and arranged Zamzam for driking of Hujaj
- When the incident of Shaq e sadar (purification and washing of all body organs of Prophet by angels) his heart was washed by Zamzam 8

Day

All historians and Companions of the Seer agree that the birth of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) was blessed on a Monday. (Sahih Muslim: 1162)

Year

It is agreed that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was born to Aam al-Fe'el (Year of Elephant)

Month

The creed of the majority of scholars is that He was born in the first month of Rabi al-Awwal.

Date

On which date of Rabi Awwal were you born? It contains several quotes from historians and biographers:

Some said 2nd of Rabi'ul Awwal, some eight, some ten, some twelve, some seventeen, some eighteen, and some twenty-two Rabi'ul Awwal, and many researchers proved 9 Rabi's instead of 12 Rabi'ul Awwal birth date. See some references below:

- Mahmoud Pasha, the famous Egyptian astronomer, and researcher, also researched that the day of the birth of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). Happened on Monday the 9th of Rabi al-Awwal, the First year after the incident of Fe'el
- In Tarikh Dul al-Arab Wala Salaam, "Talaat Book Arab" has also declared the 9th date as Sahih.
- Rahmatulil Alamin - Qazi Sulaiman Mansoor Puri
- Al Raheeq Al Maktoum - Maulana Safiur Rehman Mubarakpuri
- Seerat al-Nabi - Shibli Nomani
- History of Islam - Akbar Shah

- ❖ The manner in which Eid Milad-un-Nabi is celebrated these days was non-existent at the times of the Companions of the Prophet (may Allah be pleased with him)
- ❖ The books of the Quran and Hadith are empty of mention of this Eid Milad.
- ❖ This is a new innovation in Religion of Islam .
- ❖ When two Eid's were fixed for the Ummah; Had Eid Milad been true, it would have been included in them.
- ❖ Celebrating Milad (Birthday) is the custom of the Christians and the Ummah Muhammadiyah was barred from their similitude.
- ❖ There is a difference in opinion on the date of 12 Rabi Al-Awwal, whether he was born on that day or not. Rather, he died on the 12th of Rabi al-Awwal which is unanimously agreed by all people of Knowledge.
- ❖ It must be avoided due to the presence of other harmful elements during the event
 - Delivering Fabricated and Forged Referencing of Hadees.
 - The narrator often is an unlawful promiscuity or noted Lair.
 - Mandating Fasting on Milad as Shariah duty and Cursing and slandering to someone who does not observe it.
 - unnecessary extravagance spending , Making Harmain models and installing it at every cross road and setting flags.
 - Wearing new clothes, cooking the Feasting Food, holding gatherings, mingling of opposite genders.
 - Playing music, dancing, singing, and reciting Naats containing Shirkiya words.

In summary, this assembly is an innovation and its abandonment is necessary.

It is a fact in its place that among the people of age of ignorance (Jahiliya) there were miserly and mean habits and words against reasoning & common sense. But among them there were also such favourite moral virtues that a person would have been stunned and shocked to see Is.

Example of Specialities as Noted

1

First
Speciality

Generous & Benevolent

2

Second
Speciality

True to the word (Promise)

3

Third
Speciality

Self-reliant and Self Respectful and Conscience

4

Fourth
Speciality

Humility, Tolerance & Seriousness

5

Fifth
Speciality

Fulfilment of Ambitions, pastorally nomadic simplicity

The polytheists claimed that we were on the religion of Abraham, but they were far from the commandments and prohibitions of the Abrahamic law. These polytheists had nothing to do with the noble morals taught by this Shariat. They were full of sins and due to the passage of time, the same habits and customs of the idolaters had developed in them. Which have the status of religious myths

The condition of the Jewish religion was that it had become mere hypocrisy and control. The Jewish leaders had made themselves Lord instead of Allah. They used to dictate their will to People, They used to account for the thoughts passing in people hearts and even the movements of their lips. All their attention was focused on getting wealth and state in some way, even if the religion was destroyed and disbelief and atheism were promoted. Even if it interchanges with the teachings which Allah Almighty has ordered every person to observe and is encouraged to implement.

Christianity had become an unfathomable paganism. They had strangely confused and mixed Allah and human(Isa), Thus the Arabs who adopted this religion did not have any real influence on them because of its teachings did not match their way of life and they could not give up their way of life.

The followers of the rest of the Arab religions were like the polytheists because their hearts were the same, their beliefs were the same and their customs were most harmonious or the same.

How did Idol worship start In Arabs?

After the tribe of Khuza'a took over the guardianship of the Kaaba, the foremost person of this tribe who became the guardian of the House of God was Amr bin Lihi.

Amr ibn Lahi changed the religion of Abraham by inventing deviations in it and encouraging people to worship idols.

According to one narration, he went to the country of Syria, and there he saw a group that worshiped idols, they gave him an idol as a gift, Upon returning he installed it in the Kaaba.

After that he installed many idols around the Kaaba and introduced idolatry to the Arabs and the religion of Hanif {Deen of Ibrahim} was almost abolished.

And by the time Muhammad S.A.W was made the Prophet, three hundred and sixty (360) had been installed around the Ka'bah.

I saw Hell shattering one by one, and I saw `Umar pulling its rope, and it is the first of the causes of pain. Some other parts are being eaten and I saw Amr bin Amir al-Khuza'i walking around with his bowels in it. This is the person who started the ritual and invention of unleashing Bulls open for running

Economic conditions of Arabia before the birth of the Holy Prophet ﷺ ?

- ❑ The economic condition of the Arabs was subject to the collective condition.
- ❑ It can be estimated by looking at the means of livelihood of the Arabs that trade was the most important means of obtaining the necessities of life for them.
- ❑ Trade movement is not easy without an atmosphere of peace and security and the situation of the Arabian Peninsula was that there was no peace and security except during the holy months. This is why only the forbidden months, The famous markets of Arabia were Akaz, Dhul Majaz and Majnah etc.
- ❑ As far as Skilled & industries are concerned, the Arabs were behind the rest of the world in this field. The few industries that existed in the form of cloth weaving and leather tanning etc. were mostly in Yemen, Hira and Syrian adjoining areas. However, there was some practice of farming and herding within the Arabs.
- ❑ All the Arab women used to spin yarn, but the difficulty was that all the property and wealth was always stranded of effected due to wars, Epidemics of poverty and hunger were common, People were largely deprived of essential attires and clothing to live on.
- ❑ Nevertheless, The famous bazaars of Arabia were Akaz, Dhul Majaz and Majnah were very effective in improving the economic conditions of Arabia.
- ❑ Traveling north and south in safe and winter conditions helped to further improve their economic conditions.

Political conditions in Arabia before the birth of the Holy Prophet ﷺ

- The three border regions of the Arabian Peninsula, which were in the neighbourhood of foreign countries, were in a state of severe anxiety and chaos and extreme decline and degradation
- It was chaotic and extreme. Man was divided into two classes, master and slave or ruler and subject. All the advantages of heads. And especially the foreign chiefs were entitled to it and all the burden was on the slaves.
- The tribes living in the neighbourhood of these areas were suffering from confusion. They used to throw themselves to their desires here and there and here and there. Sometimes they would mingle with Iraqis. Sometimes used to mix with the Syrians.
- The tribes that settled in the interior of Arabia were also with loose joints and was scattered. Everywhere there was a hot market of tribal feuds, ethnic riots and religious differences, in which each tribe In any case, they used to support their own tribe whether it was right or wrong.
- There was no king in the inner Arabs who could give strength to their voice, and there was no authority to turn to in times of trouble and on whom one could trust when the time came.
- Off course, the government of Hijaz was seen with respect and was also considered as the leader and guardian of the centre of religion. This government was a combination of political leadership and religious leadership. They had the upper hand over the Arabs in the name of his religious leader and he had formal rule over the Haram and its surroundings. They also managed and use to take care of the pilgrims of Baitul Ullah and enforced the rules of the Abrahamic Sharia. They also had institutions and formations like parliamentary institutions. But this government was so weak that it was responsible for internal Arabs It did not have the strength to carry the burden of the lines, as was shown on occasion of the attack of the Abyssinians.
- Ghassanah and Manazrah were two small kingdoms of Arabia that were with more inclined towards Rome and Persia.

Conditions in world before the birth of the Holy Prophet ﷺ

- At the time when the Prophet (PBUH) was born, at that time ignorant rituals, self-made religious and social closures, and cultural and moral decline were at their peak and the entire world was wandering in the darkness.
- Before Prophet Muhammad's arrival, civilization and manners were completely distorted. Persecution, coercion, violence, and brutality were ways of life, everywhere darkness of disbelief, atheism, cruelty, and ignorance surrounded humanity from all sides. Humanity was a victim of the oppression of dictatorship and imperialism. All human dignity had been violated. The whole world was presenting a scene of oppression. Every concept of human rights was lost in the ego of the rulers.
- Before the Birth of Prophet Muhammad, Rome and Persia (Iran) were the superpowers of their time. These superpowers of their time could have evolved the civilization of humans. Instead, they were suffering from an incurable disease of an unnatural sense of superiority by imposing a night of slavery on small and weak countries.
- The ruling classes of the Iranians and Romans were living in luxury. They were like a group of cheerleaders who had gathered around the rulers for Rewards from the royal treasury and rulers from the blood and sweat of the people, common men were called peasants. People were treated worse than animals when they were enjoying themselves.
- There was a wide gulf of hatred between the ruling and subjugated classes, the market for oppression was hot and there were no signs of Sultanate democracy anywhere. every
- There was a storm of disbelief and idolatry (associating partners with Allah) was eroding. Somewhere the stars and planetary bodies and other objects in the galaxy were being worshipped, and in other places, false gods were erected who were originally either humans or out of completely fake stories, or hearts and minds were being consumed by fire worship.

Prophet Muhammad ﷺ as a toddler under the caring lap of Da'ee Haleema

It was customary for the urban inhabitants of Arabia to hand over their children to nursing Bedouin women to keep their children away from urban diseases so that their bodies would be strong and healthy, Alongside also to be strong and learn pure and exquisite Arabic from their cradle itself.

According to this order, Abd al-Muttalib The Grandfather of Prophet found a nursing midwife and entrusted the Prophet (PBUH) to Benevolent Halima bint Abi Dhuwaib.

She was a woman from Tribe of Bani Saad bin Bakr. Her husband's name was Harith bin Abd al-Uzza and his was also known as Abu Kabsha and he also belonged to the Bani Saad tribe.

After accepting the responsibility of the Prophet, the doors of blessings were opened for him. Their horses began to run faster, their animals began to give milk better and graze better.

Seeing their blessings, even after the completion of two years of fostering, they asked for permission to keep Prophet in their house for a further period.

In the fourth year, the Shaq Sadar incident happened, Halima felt threatened by this incident and handed over Prophet to his mother.

The incident of chaffing the chest occurred four times in the life of the Prophet (PBUH)

First time during his childhood when he was under the care of Halima Saadia, and at that time he (peace be upon him) was four years old.

The second time the incident of Shaq al-Sadr happened to the Prophet (PBUH) at the age of ten.

The third time at the time of Receiving Prophethood

The fourth time, at the time of Ascension, the Shaq Sadr incident happened.

On the authority of Anas bin Malik, Angel Gabriel (PBUH) came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, while he was playing with the boys. They held the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and pulled him out and tore out the heart, then he removed a piece of it and said that there was piece was for Satan in you, then he washed that heart in a gold bowl with Zamzam water. (It does not permit us to believe that it is right for us to use gold vessels. Because this was the act of the angels, and it is possible that their Sharia is different to our Sharia. Secondly, the use of gold was not forbidden until that time.) Then Gabriel stitched it together, The boys who were with him ran to the mother (Foster Mother Halima RZ) of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and said that Muhammad (peace be upon him) has been killed. On hearing this, the people ran and saw that he (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) is safe and sound and his colour has changed (from fear).(peace be upon him) had seen the mark on the chest of the Prophet (PBUH). (Sahih Muslim: 162)

- Since the incident of Shaq al-Sadr in the fourth year, he remained in the bosom of his mother's love until he was six years old.
- Mother Amina decided to go to Yathrib in memory of her deceased husband and visit his grave. So, she went to Madinah after covering about five hundred kilometers in the company of her orphaned child Muhammad (peace be upon him), her servant Umm Ayman and her Father-in-Law and Guardian Abdul-Muttalib and returned after staying there for a month. But the beginnings were still on the way when the disease came. Then this disease became more and more serious until Mother Aminah reached Abuwa, a place between Makkah and Madinah, and passed away.
- After the death of Prophet's mother, he was supported by his grandfather Abd al-Muttalib. Old Abdul Muttalib reached Makkah with his grandson.
- Abd al-Muttalib had such high affection for his grandson that he did not have same any of his own children. He loved him more than his own children and use to respect him like adults
- Abdul Muttalib used to say: By Allah! His glory is unique, he would have Prophet sit with him on floor with him. He used to caress his back with his hand and would observe Prophet's actions and speech with great affection and joy.
- Prophet was only 8 years, two months and ten days old when Grandfather Abd al-Muttalib's gracious shade passed away.

- Abu Mutalib the Grandfather of Prophet died in Makkah and before his death entrusted Prophets guardianship to his Uncle AbuTalib who was the blood brother of his father Abdullah.
- Abu Talib overwhelmingly took special care of his nephew. Raised prophet among his children. Rather, he gave prophet more honor and respect than own children.
- More than 40 years, he strengthened prophet, kept his shadow of support and made friendship and enmity based on How people behaved with Prophet S.A.W.
- There was a famine in Mecca, Abu Talib brought his nephew Prophet Muhammad peace be upon him along to pray and it started raining. Referring to the same incident, he said in praise of Muhammad in below Poetic words

“He is beautiful, his face draws rain from clouds . He is the guardian of orphans and source of protection of widows”

- When the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was fourteen years old, the Battle of Fajar took place.
- In this war, Quraysh and Banu Kinana were on one side and Qays Aylan was on the other side.
- The commander of Quraysh and Kanana was Harb bin Umayyah because he was highly respected by Quraysh and Kanana because of his dignity and Honor.
- At first, the Qais was overpowering on Kanana, but by Noon, the balance shifted towards Kanana.
- It is called Harb Fajar because in it the sanctity of both the Kaaba and holy months were violated.
- The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) also attended this battle and used supply arrows to his uncles. His uncles who participated in this battle were Zubair, Hamza and Abbas.

After the Battle of Fajr, Halaf-ul-Fazul took place in the same sacred month of Dhu Qa'dah.

A few tribes of Quraish, namely Bani Hashim, Bani Matalib, Bani Asad ibn Abdul Uzza, Bani Zahra bin Kalab, and Bani Tayyum ibn Marah organized it.

These people gathered at the house of Abdullah bin Jidaan Taymi. Because he was distinguished in hearing and honorable person. They made a promise among themselves that whoever will be seen oppressed in Makkah. Whether a resident of Makkah or elsewhere, All will stand up in his aid and support to get justice

The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was also present in this gathering, and later, after being honoured with the honour of Prophethood, he used to say: I was a participant in an agreement at the house of Abdullah bin Jadaan I would have not exchanged to miss the participation even for herd of red camels and if I would have been called for this promise in the era of Islam, I would have said yes to participate in it [Biography of Ibn Hisham: Volume 1, page 133]

The reason for this agreement is said to be that a man of Tribe of Zubayd came to Makkah with goods and Aas bin Wayeel bought the goods from him but withheld his due payment. He requested help from the allied tribes of Abd al-Dar, Makhzoom, Jamah, Saham, Aadi and others but no one heeded his request. After that, he climbed Jabal Abu Qubais and recited some verses in a loud voice. In which he narrated his story of oppression. On this, Zubair bin AbdAl-Mutlib ran and said, "Why is this person without support and helpless?" Through his efforts, the above-mentioned tribes came together, first concluded a treaty and then obtained the payment of Zubeidi from Aas bin Wayeel.

Objectives of swearing oath: To support the victim and restore his right. To remove injustice and aggression. Returning rights to their owners. Protecting the old houses. Increase cooperation, justice, solidarity and victory Establishing values

The construction of Baitullah and the verdict of Hajar Aswad (Black stone)

- It was the thirty-fifth year of the Prophet's life that the Quraysh started the construction of the Kaaba anew. This work was started on the advice of Waleed bin Mughira Makhzoomi.
- The other reason also that there was a heavy flood that year which faced towards the Kaaba, the Kaaba could collapse at any moment. Therefore, the Quraysh were forced to Rebuild it to maintain its status and position. At this stage, Quraysh made a unanimous decision that only halal money would be used in the construction of the Kaaba
- Each tribe had a separate share for the construction and each tribe piled stones separately.
- When the building was raised up to Hajar Aswad, a dispute arose as to who should have the privilege of placing the Hajar Aswad in its place. This quarrel continued for four or five days and gradually became so intense that it was expected that there would be a serious bloodshed in the Haram, However Abu Umayyah Makhzoomi made a wise decision and said "that the one who enters first on the second day from the gate of Masjid Haram should be accepted as the ruler of their dispute. People accepted this proposal. By the will of Allah, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) came first. When the people saw him, they shouted with Joy, " "This is Amin", "we are pleased and satisfied with him", "this is Muhammad (Peace and blessing of Allah Be upon him). Then when Prophet approached them, They explained the details of the matter, the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), Prophet requested for a blanket, he then placed black stone in the middle of a blanket and asked the chiefs of the disputing tribes to hold the edge of the blanket and lift it up. They obliged the same when the blanket reached the place of the Black Stone, the Holy Prophet placed the Black Stone in its appointed place with his blessed hand. This was a very reasonable decision and the whole community was Agreed on it [Al-Raheeq al-Makhtoum Safiur Rahman Mubarakpuri p. 52]

A journey to the country of Syria and trade in Khadija RZ wealth

Prophet's first commercial trip

The Prophet (PBUH) was already 12 years old when his uncle Abu Talib set out for Syria with the Quraish caravan and took the Prophet (PBUH) with him.

When they reached near the city of Basra, They happened to meet Bahira Rahab, he saw the light on the Prophet's face and the signs of prophethood and found him to be fitting criteria of the prophecy of the coming Prophet, so he urged Abu Talib that The boy will grow up to be great, so protect him from the Jewish enemies of Syria; Thus, Abu Talib immediately sent Prophet back to Makkah

Trade with Khadija RZ Wealth

The wealthiest woman in Mecca was Khadijah bint Khuwaylid RZ, who had been twice widowed, She had inherited a large business estate from her father, and now turned her attention to trade, To keep their business afloat, they needed someone trustworthy who also had business acumen and commercial experience.

The Prophet was about 24 years old; But his noble qualities had started to be talk of the town, his business acumen had also become famous. She expressed that if prophet PBUH can trade her goods in country of Syria with prerequisite of give double profit as compared to other people. After consulting his uncle Abu Talib, Prophet PBUH accepted this offer

He then proceeded for Syria for the second time, he managed to sell goods in Syria and on his return, he found goods that could be sold immediately in Makkah, he brought these goods from Syria and sold them in Makkah and made additional profit. Prophet PBUH have multiplied gains more than any other trader, After making a huge profit, he handed it over to Khadija Bani Al Manha, which made her very pleased . [Al-Raheeq al-Makhtoum Safiur Rahman Mubarakpuri p. 50 to 51]

The Prophet's ﷺ marriage with Khadija رضي الله عنها

- When Hazrat Khadija RA went to Syria for the purpose of trade, she entrusted the property to the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and she left her trusted slave Meseera with him.
- Keeping his slave with Prophet was so that slave would continue to serve and keep an eye on the trade and wealth but mainly to get to understand the habits and morals of the Holy Prophet (peace be upon him) in depth.
- Upon her return from the journey to Syria, the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) handed the profit of the trade & Businesses to Hazrat Khadija RA
- Meseera not only provided information on Prophet's trustworthiness, but he highly praised Prophet's morals in such a way that deeply influenced Khadija RA, She wanted to spend last period of her life with a righteous person, He saw a gem in the bosom of Muhammad (peace be upon him).
- Thus, after returning from the journey to Syria, Khadija RA sent the message of marriage proposal to the Holy Prophet.
- He accepted it on the advice of his uncle and at the age of twenty-five he married a woman who was fifteen years older than him and twice a widow. After the marriage, Khadija Bani RA showered her wealth at the feet of the Prophet. But you spent all their wealth on helping the poor, widows and orphans and maintained his family livelihood from trade.
- There were many wisdoms of this marriage. This marriage is a rebuttal to the objectors who say that the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was a captive of lustful desires and married solely basis his personal wants.

- The revelation Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) began with a good dreams in your sleep. Every dream that the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to have would appear like a bright morning.
- Then he started loving solitude. Therefore, he (peace be upon him) used to take seclusion in the cave of Heera and spend many nights without coming home, engaged in worship.
- He (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was in the cave of Hira and he was in his fortieth year when an angel came to him and said, "Read!" He said, I am not educated. He (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) says that he grabbed me and pressed me so hard that my strength was squeezed. Then left and said, read! I said I am not educated. He tightened his grip again. Then left and said, read! I again said I am not educated. He took hold of it for the third time and then released it and said, ``Iqra Bi'ismi Rabbikal Lazi Qalaq, Qalaq al Insaana min Alaq, Iqra Bi Rabi kal-akram." Which means "Read in the name of your Lord who created , created man from a lump or clot of blood. Read and your Lord is Most Merciful.
- With these verses, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) returned home. The heart of the Holy Prophet was beating hard. He returned to Hazrat Khadijah bint Khuwaylid place and said, "Give me a cloak" Cover me, cover me. She covered him with a cloak until his fear went down.
- This incident took place on the 21st of Ramadan in the night of 2nd day of the week (Monday). That day was the 10th of August, and the year was 610 AD According to the lunar calendar, the Prophet's age was forty years, six months and twelve days It was 39 years three months 22 days according to the solar calendar.

□ Wahi in Arabic means to give a subtle hint or to secretly send something or a message to someone with great speed or to put something in the heart. (Taj al Urus 385/10)

□ Allama Ibn Qayyim, may God have mercy on him, has mentioned the following levels of revelation:

- 1) True dream: This is the beginning of revelation to the Prophet; may God bless him and grant him peace.
- 2) The angel used put inspiration and revelation of Allah in prophet's PBUH heart without appearing him physically
- 3) The angel used to take the form of a man for the Prophet PBUH and address him, then Prophet PBUH would remember what angel revealed. In this case sometimes companions of Prophet would also used to see the angel in human forms.
- 4) Revelation came to him like the tinkling of a bell. Revelation like this was the most severe and use exhausting, in this case, the angel used to meet him and during the revelation, Extreme sweating from forehead the Prophet (PBUH) use to happen even during the harsh winter, and when the Prophet (PBUH) rode on a camel, She camel use would hurry to sit on the ground.
- 5) The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) used to see the angel in his original and born form and in that state, he used to make revelations to the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) according to the will of Allah.
- 6) The revelation that Allah revealed to the Prophet PBUH regarding the obligation of prayer on the night of Ascension, etc., when he (peace be upon him) was above the heavens.
- 7) Direct conversation of Allah Ta'ala with Prophet peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, without the help of an angel.

Stages of Da'wah of the Prophet ﷺ after the Prophetic ascension

Wisdom required that at first the work of da'wah and tabligh should be done rather discreetly so that a precarious situation does not suddenly arise in front of the people of Makkah.

On your invitation, who converted to Islam on the very first day:

- Umm al-Mu'minin Khadija bint Khuwaylid, the wife of the Prophet (peace be upon him).
- The freed slave of the Prophet, Zayd bin Haritha bin sharijil Kalbi,
- Ali ibn Abi Talib, the cousin of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) who was still under the guardianship of the Prophet (peace be upon him)
- And Abu Bakr Siddiq, the friend of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) these 4 Ajamaeen

First three years the preaching was secret and individualistic and during this time a community of believers was formed which was based on brotherhood and cooperation. This community was conveying the message of Allah and invested to give this Message it is honourable and rightful.

After that, the divine revelation came that Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was obliged to openly invite his people to religion. Confront their vanity and expose the reality of their idols.

On receiving the order of invitation, he invited everyone to eat at his house, Another well-known method was that he climbed Mount Safa and called out to everyone and presented the wise teachings of Islam.

- ❑ He used to be very respectful of Prophet Muhammad PBUH
- ❑ Taught Prophet PBUH how to trade; Took with him on trading trips
- ❑ After the prophethood was declared, he supported in da'wah works
- ❑ He used to be a shield against enemies and protect Prophet PBUH
- ❑ He endured the hardships of Sha'b Abi Talib with Prophet PBUH
- ❑ He used to be in Prophet's PBUH support till the end of life; Therefore, the year of his death was called Aam Al-Hazn.

A city that was the capital of the Roman conquests, there lived a monk named Jirgees (Georges), who was known by the nickname of Bahira. Abu Talib took the Prophet (PBUH) with him in a trade caravan; When the caravan encamped in that city, this monk came out of his Church and entered the caravan and hosted it, though he had never before hosted any caravans before.

He recognized the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) based on his attributes and held his hand and said: This is Sayyid al-Alameen. Allah will send them as mercy to the world (Rahmat-ul-Alameen)

Abu Talib said: How did you know this? He said: When your caravan appeared on this side of the valley, there was not a tree or a stone that was not bowed down in prostration, and these things were not seen by anyone except the Prophet. They do not prostrate to humans. Then I recognize them by the Seal of Prophethood which is like an apple near the collar (soft bone) below the shoulder and we also find them in our books.

After that, Bahir Rahib told Abu Talib not to take the Prophet PBUH to Syria. Because there is a threat from the Jews. On this, Abu Talib sent him back to Makkah accompanied by some slaves.

Warqa bin Nawfal's role in the life of the Prophet ﷺ

- ❑ Warqa bin Nawfal bin Asad bin Abdul Uzzah became a Christian during the era of ignorance and knew how to read write in Hebrew. Therefore, he use to write the Injeel (Gospel) in the Hebrew language. He was very old and lost his sight at that time of Prophet PBUH ascension
- ❑ After the first revelation, Khadijah (RA) took Prophet (PBUH) to her cousin Warqa bin Nawfal bin Asad bin Abd al-Uzza.
- ❑ Khadija said to them, Brother! You listen to your nephew. Warqa said: Nephew! what do you see ?, The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) narrated what he had seen (incident of meeting angel and revelation)
- ❑ Warqa said to him: This is the honor that Allah revealed to Moses. I wish would have energy during the time , I wish would be alive when the people of Makkah will expel Prophet PBUH. The Prophet PBUH enquired surprisingly that would my people will expel me? Warqa said, yes! Whenever a man brought such a message as you have brought He would face animosity, if I would be alive at time, I would have strongly supported you. Waraqa died soon after that and the revelation paused for some time.

إِنَّمَا يُرِيدُ اللَّهُ لِيُذْهِبَ عَنْكُمُ الرِّجْسَ أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ وَيُطَهِّرَكُمْ تَطْهِيرًا ٣٤- ٣٣ أحزاب

Allah only intends to remove impurity from you, O People of the Household (Family of Prophet PBHU), and to purify you with a thorough purification. 33 Ahzab

- ☐ The family of the Prophet PBUH and the Ahl al-Bayt include his noble wives, their descendants, Banu Hashim, Banu Abdul Muttalib and their successors.
- ☐ The Ahl-e-Bayt are the people from whom Allah has removed all kinds of filth and purified (Quran 33: 33-34)
- ☐ It is obligatory to send blessings upon the Ahl al-Bayt in every prayer.
- ☐ It is obligatory to have a heart-felt relationship with them.
- ☐ They must be defended.
- ☐ Allah loves them.
- ☐ their hearts were guided.
- ☐ Charity is prohibited for family of Ahl-e-Bayt, One must offer something from the personal wealth just like their family
- ☐ They are leader in the world.

- After the revelation of the first revelation, when the Messenger of Allah PBUH, returned home, his heart was beating hard due to fear.
- He went to Khadija binte Khuwaylid and said, Cover me with a cloak, cover me with a cloak. She covered prophet with a cloak until his fear subsided.
- After that, the Prophet PBUH reported the incident to Hazrat Khadija and said, "What has happened to me?" I fear for my life.
- Khadija said, "Absolutely not." Allah Almighty will never disgrace you, You are merciful, bear the burden of the poor, and Take care of unprivileged, host guests and help in the suffering of the righteous. (Bukhari and Muslim) With these words, Khadija RA comforted and relieved Prophet PBUH
- After that, Khadija RA took Prophet PBUH to her cousin Warqa bin Nawfal bin Asad bin Abdul-Uzza. who further consoled the Prophet (peace be upon him).
- Khadija (RA) was the first to believe in the Prophet (PBUH) message in the first one who disposed all her wealth for Prophet (PBUH) cause.

- Abu Bakr Siddiq was a special and most beloved friend of the Prophet (PBUH).
- On the invitation of the Prophet (PBUH), his companion of Cave Abu Bakr Siddique (RA) converted to Islam on the very first day.
- He was caring, loving, gentle, likable, well-mannered and kind-hearted. People used to visit him because of his wisdom, foresight, trade and good company.
- After accepting Islam, Abu Bakr (R.A.) became enthusiastic in preaching Islam. So, he invited to Islam whomever he found trustworthy among those who used to visit him.
- Through his efforts Hazrat Uthman (RA), Hazrat Zubair (RA), Hazrat Abd al-Rahman bin Awf (RA), Hazrat Saad bin Abi Waqqas (RA) and Hazrat Talha bin Ubaid Ullah (RA) became Muslims. These pious were the first troops of Islam.

Acceptance of Islam by Zaid Bin Haritha

Raziallah tala anhu

- Zayd bin Haritha RZ, may Allah bless him and grant him peace, is the only Sahabi whose name appears in the Holy Qur'an.
- He was kidnapped and enslaved as a child by pagan Arab era, After being sold by many hands, he was bought by Hazrat Khadija's RZ nephew Hakeem bin Hizam and offered his vows to Hazrat Khadija. Khadija offered this slave to the Holy Prophet.
- He was a boy from a free Christian family. Meanwhile, your father also got the news about you. His father Harith and paternal uncle came to Makkah to pick him up and offered the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) the money he asked for. The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said, "If Zayd RZ wants to go with you, I will not take any money." Prefer to stay with Prophet PBUH.
- Seeing this, his father was shocked and disappointed, His father said that you prefer the life of slavery to freedom; Zayd RZ said that I saw in Muhammad that for him I can leave universe let alone my father. Hearing this, Prophet Muhammad PBUH was very happy and took him to the Kaaba and announced that people, listen, I am freeing Zayd from today and making him my son. After that he used to be called Zayd bin Muhammad RZ instead of Zayd bin Harith.
- When the Messenger of Allah PBUH was given the title of prophethood, Zayd RZ was the first to accept Islam among slaves who took honor of allegiance.

Acceptance of Islam by Ali Bin Abutalib

Raziallah tala anhu

When Ali was only ten years old, Muhammad was blessed with prophethood. As soon as this news reached him, he converted to Islam. The first person who prayed with the Messenger of Allah (PBUH) was Ali (RA).

When it was time for the prayer, Prophet PBUH would go to any valley near Makkah and use to offer prayers to Allah SWT, and Ali RZ would also hide from his father, uncles, and all members of the family, and use to attend all prayers with the Messenger PBUH, and return home in the evening.

This process continued till Allah wished, But one day when these two were praying, Abu Talib saw them praying, Abu Talib asked the Messenger of Allah PBUH, "Dear One! Who is this that you are worshiping and what religion is this?" He (PBUH) replied: "Dear uncle! This is the religion of our forefather Hazrat Ibrahim PBUH, Allah has sent me as a messenger to his servants. "Dear Uncle you are the most deserving for my invitation, Abu Talib replied: O dear, I cannot leave the religion of my forefathers and their ways, but by Allah as long as I live. no harm will come to you.

Those who used to come to Makkah in search of truth and righteousness and seeking Islam, Hazrat Ali (RA) used to help and guide them and bring them to the meet Messenger of Allah (PBUH), To carry out this work Allah had given him special ability and intelligence.

One day, the Holy Prophet wanted to spread Islam in his family and said to Hazrat Ali, "arrange for a Feast". Though he was just 14 or 15 years, Ali RZ made a very good arrangement, there were goat's feet and milk on the table. The whole family was participating in the feast, there were forty people attended Including, Hamza RZ, Abbas RZ, Abu Talib were all present. After Food, Prophet told the attendees "I have brought that which is the guarantor of both the religion and the world" Who would help me to lift this huge weight, There was an utter silence in the group, Upon this Hazrat Ali stood up and said: "Even though I have conjunctivitis, my legs are thin and I am the youngest, but I will support you."

Acceptance of Islam by Hazrat Bilal the Abyssinian

Raziallah tala anhu

Hazrat Bilal Habshi or Abyssinian (RZ) is a famous Companion who was always the Muezzin of the Prophet's Mosque.

Before Islam, Hazrat Bilal RZ was a slave of Umayyah ibn Khalaf, a strong disbeliever and enemy of Islam. Upon embracing Islam, he was put to various kinds of tortures and brutality by his master and other disbelievers.

Umayyah bin Khalaf, who was a fierce enemy of the Muslims, used to make him lie upright on the hot sand at afternoon in the heat of the day and put a big rock on their chest so that they could not move and use to say that either you die in this state or if you want to live, you should leave Islam, but even in this situation, he used to say "Ahad" "Ahad", which means God is only one.

At night they were tied in chains and flogged with whip and the next day they were put on the hot ground and injured more so that they would either turn back to Islam or die in agony.

His torturers used to get tired and used to take turns to beat him, Abu Jahl's, Umayyah bin Khalaf, sometimes it was others, and everyone would try to test their full strength in beating him till they used to feel exhausted.

After all the torments he used to then get handed to wicked boys of Makkah who used to drag him to town square and streets chanting "Ahad Ahad".

Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddiq (RZ) saw him in this condition and bought him and set him free.

Precautionary approach while dealing with opponents during Propagation period

- ❑ In the beginning, Prophet PBUH was careful to declare prophethood and openly inviting people to Islam.
- ❑ Prophet PBUH opted to discreetly and individually convey the message Islam only to those whom he hoped would not only just accept Islam but also keep it secret until Allah's order for public invitation.
- ❑ Continued preaching secretly for three years.
- ❑ Sahaba RZ used to pray in secret in the deserted valleys of Makkah, so that no one would know about it.
- ❑ Prophet PBUH made Dar-e-Arqam a center of education and training of those who accepted Islam, This centre was far from the populace.
- ❑ Secrecy and caution in any stage of preaching is not contrary to the spirit of the prophetic mission, but it is the exact requirement of wisdom.

Darur-arqam. Islam's First Preaching center (Dawa Center)

- Darur Arqam was made a center for the education and guidance for those who accepted Islam because it was far from the population. Darur arqam is actually attributed to Hazrat Arqam bin Abul Arqam RZ. He Accepted Islam on invitation of Abu Bakr Siddique he knew how to read write, so you got the status of scribe of revelation (Katib e Wahi) You are one of the forerunners (Sabeeqonal awaloon). After accepting Islam, Hazrat Arqam dedicated his house for teaching and thus the first Madrasah of Islam came into being and this place of guidance got the name of Makaraz darur Arqam. His house was located on Mount Safa in Makkah
- Dar-i-Arqam was a secret shelter for new converts to Islam. They used to come there by avoiding the eyes of people and learn the basics of religion. The Messenger of Allah PBUH also used to visit there from time to time and use to impart the duty of educating, training and purification.
- The most important activity there was the learning and teaching of the Holy Quran.
- The Messenger of Allah PBUH used to directly supervise and train those who came to Arqam. You would correct their beliefs and morals, improve their morals and character
- He used to exhort them to be patient in the face of sufferings and tortures from the polytheists, bind their shoulders and instill in them courage, determination and independence.
- Lessons and lessons
- Its first lesson is that the establishment of a center is necessary for the development and stability of Da'wah.
- It is necessary for the relatives to hold gatherings from time to time, so that their faith is refreshed and their religious knowledge is increased.
- Secrecy and caution in any stage of da'wah is not contrary to the spirit of the prophetic mission, but it is the exact requirement of wisdom. If there is a threat to life or there is fear of being victimized as a result of faith, there is no problem in finding a place of refuge, where one can stay to save life and protect faith.

Introduction of Hunafah

(People who believed in creed of Prophet Ibrahim during the time of Jahiliya)

1. Mohammed ﷺ

This fact is clear as day that the Messenger of Allah PBUH is the foremost and greatest figure among the Hanafis.

2. Zayd bin Umru and bin Nufai

Used to say: "O People of Quraysh! By the One in whose hand is my life! None of you is on the Abrahamic religion except me.

3. Warqa Bin Nuwfal

Warqa bin Nawfal bin Asad bin Abd al uzza became a Christian during the Jahiliya period and knew how to write in Hebrew. When he met the Prophet PBUH, he became a Muslim

4. Qus bin Saeeda Al-Ayadi

He was a great priest of Najran, an Arab orator, a famous hakim and statement, He believed in Allah used to call people towards Allah through wisdom and good advice.

5. Umayyah bin Abi Salat

He is the same person about whom the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: "It is evident from the poems that he was about to become a Muslim

6. Labaid bin Rabiyyah Amiri Kalai Jafari:

He was a great poet of Jahiliyyah period. His poem (qasida) was famous all over Arabia. The Messenger said about them: "The most truthful thing that any poet has said is this saying of Labid: "Alla kal shih makhla Allah batil ("Beware! Everything besides Allah is mortal").

In addition to the mentioned men, the famous Hanafis: Arbab bin Rayab, the famous poet Suwayd bin Amir Mustalqi, Asad Abu Karb Hamiri, Waki' bin Salama bin Zuhair Ayadi, Amir bin Hayzab Jahni, Adi bin Zayd Ebadi he became Christians. Abu Qays Sara bin Abi Anas Bukhari, Saif bin Dhi Yazin Hamiri, Amir bin Zarab Adwani, the famous poet Abdul Tanjah bin Thaalb bin Wabra bin Qazaa, Alaf bin Shahab Tamimi, Multamas bin Umayyah Kanani, the famous poet Zuhair bin Abi Salmi, Khalid bin Sinan Ibn Ghais al-Albasi, Abdullah Qadahyee, Ubaid bin Abras Asadi, Ka'b bin Lui bin Ghalib Qureshi, who are the ancestors of the Holy Prophet (peace be upon him).

Assassination attempts & conspiracies on the Prophet ﷺ

The prophethood period of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) was only 23 years. Out of which the first three years are very secret preaching. In remaining 20 years the greatest benefactor of humanity faced up to 18 murderous attacks the conspiracies to end Prophet's life

1. A murderous attack on the first call to Tawheed; Martyrdom of the one who saved the life of you
2. Abu Jahl's intention to kill
3. The intention of Uqba bin Abi Mu'it to kill
4. Hazrat Umar's RZ intention to kill the Prophet before converting to Islam
5. Bargaining with Abu Talib with intent to kill
6. Muqataha Sha'b e Abi Talib, Collective attempts to kill the Prophet
7. The conspiracy that led to the migration
8. A reward of one hundred red camels offered for capture or killing after migration
9. Umayr bin Wahb Jamhi's advice to kill, 2 Hijri
10. Planned assassination by jews of, 4 Hijri
11. The intention of Samama bin Athal to kill prophet 6 Hijri
12. Jewish conspiracy to kill the Prophet with a poisoned goat 7 Hijri
13. Intentional of Khosrow Parvez Shah of Iran for assassination
14. Jewish conspiracy to kill the Prophet by magic
15. A Bedouin intention to murder of Prophet
16. Intention of Fazala bin Umayr to kill 8 Hijri
17. Hypocrites' conspiracy to kill the Holy Prophet, 9 Hijri
18. Amir bin Tufail and Arid's conspiracy to kill, 10 Hijri

Prophet's ﷺ prayers & supplication for people who were invited to Islam

- Abdullah bin Masoud RZ said that it was as if I was watching the Prophet's team narrating the story of one of the prophets who was beaten so badly by his people that he bled from his face, They wipe it and say: O Allah, forgive my people because they do not know the truth.
- As per another narration from ibne Masoud RZ , Prophet PBUH at the place called “Jarana” was distributed the booty of battle of Hunnain. The people gathered a crowd to the Messenger of Allah he said: Allah sent a servant from among the servants of God to his people, but the people rejected him and beaten him till he was bleeding, He was bleeding from his forehead but used to wiped it to say: O my Lord! Forgive my people for they do not know the truth. Ibn Mas’ud RZ says: It is as if I am seeing the Messenger of Allah PBUH imitating this Prophet himself. (Sahih Bukhari: 4377, 6929. Sahih Muslim: 1792. Sahih Ibn Hibban: 6576. Musnad Ahmad- 4366, 4331, 4057, 4107, 3611)
- Hazrat Abdullah bin Umar says: Indeed, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) prayed: O Allah! Give honor and strength to Islam through Abu Jahl or Umar bin Khattab, whichever is more beloved to you. Abdullah bin Umar (RA) says that Hazrat Umar (RA) was more beloved to Allah and he embraced islam, (Musnad Ahmad: 5696 - Tabaqat Ibn Saad: 3/267. Sunan Tirmidhi: 3681. Musnad Bazar: 5862. Mohjim Awsat, Tabrani: 4752. Tariq al-Damascus: 44/25 - Tushih al-Albani fi al-Mishkaah: 6036)
- He prayed for the people of Taif: I hope that Allah will raise from their bones such a generation that will be worshipers of God alone and will not associate anyone with Him.

☐ An outline of the method adopted by the Prophet PBUH as a teacher

- 1) Teaching at every appropriate time
- 2) Teaching in every suitable place
- 3) Education to different types of people
- 4) Utilization of available opportunities in education
- 5) Welcoming student
- 6) Bringing the target audience closer
- 7) Prophet PBUH use to keep addressees engaged and focused
- 8) Silence people before speaking
- 9) Calling students by name, surname or title
- 10) Handshaking, padding, Shouldering, bracing student.
- 11) Revising to warn and express relevance
- 12) Prayer for disciples
- 13) Clarity and consistency in conversation
- 14) Repetition
- 15) Use of Gestures and Non-verbal communication
- 16) Use of lines and shapes.
- 17) Stating examples
- 18) Educating by practical work
- 19) Adoptive style
- 20) First summary, then detail
- 21) Interrogative style
- 22) Questioning students
- 23) Use of hinting or indicative names for topic where modesty is needed
- 24) Do not shy away from teaching essentials things.
- 25) Permission to question
- 26) Appreciating good questions.
- 27) Using inferences and Logic to answer
- 28) More answer than question
- 29) Silence in response to the unknown
- 30) Displeasure at useless and laborious questions
- 31) Question and answer allowed for better understanding
- 32) Permission to remind students
- 33) To give an opportunity of education and training to the student in his presence
- 34) Giving opportunity to the pupil to repeat the lesson
- 35) Modesty & Balanced approach
- 36) Education with pleasure and compassion
- 37) Expressing disappointment at an unexpected mistake from a person
- 38) Anger at the stupidity of an intelligent person
- 39) Preference to poor students himself and family
- 40) Realization of students' abilities
- 41) Considering the situation of the students
- 42) Honouring worthy students
- 43) Keeping in mind the impact of your words and actions on students
- 44) taking notice of non-attendance of students
- 45) Facilitating Educator
- 46) Motivation to learn as much knowledge as possible

- The Prophet PBUH always envisioned intelligence and wisdom in training methods.
- The Prophet PBUH would not utter any word or act in such a way that the addressee would get a wrong impression, create a state of dissatisfaction within him or cause him to suffer any reaction.
- The Prophet PBUH got to know anyone's mistake he use to be very careful not to scold them in a manner that they feel bad or down.
- The Prophet PBUH would wait for the right opportunity. Instead of warning personally , he would have pointed out the shortcomings while addressing a group. The person would realize it stop doing it while not even realizing that this was being said specifically to him.
- If Prophet PBUH ever felt the need to directly warn about the mistake, he would explain it in a very heartfelt and loving manner in solitude so that the addressee would not suffer from any inferiority complex, and Also make corrections.
- Sometimes it would happen that the Prophet (peace be upon him) would not say anything with his tongue to draw attention to a mistake, but he would hint the person making the mistake so that he would realize his mistake. In some cases this indication would have been more effective and instructive than verbal instruction
- In the context of invitation and educating, Prophet PBUH used special wisdom to avoid lengthy talks, boring sermons.
- Prophet PBUH used limited yet meaningful words so that the listener can remember well and if a person wants to memorize it, it can be memorized easily. There is an ocean of meaning in your limited sentences. In terminology of preaching such words are called "jama' al kalam".

Renowned biographer of Seerah Qazi Suleiman Salman Mansoor Puri has described the five stages of Dawat Tabligh.

1. Close relatives and special friends
2. People of the nation and the city
3. The tribes of the outskirts of Makkah
4. All the tribes of Arabia
5. All the nations and all the famous religions of the world

Here are your style invitations.

1. Admonish from time to time
- 2- wise and logical reasoning and argument
- 3- To be mindful of the listener's language, way of speaking, tone and position
4. To repeat it as much as needed to reason with them

1 The Prophet (peace be upon him) ordered Salah Rahmi, which means to maintain relations with relatives. And whoever believes in God and the Last Day, let him maintain his ties of kinship (Sahih Al-Bukhari: 6138)

2 A reward was promised with the encouragement of mercy. Whoever is pleased that his livelihood will be expanded for him, or that his path be extended, let him maintain his ties of kinship (Sahih Al-Bukhari: 2067)

3 those who do not show mercy, break relationships are warned of Allah's punishment to make their heart fearful to stop severing ties. The most hateful deeds to God are associating others with God and then severing ties of kinship. (Sahih Al-Jami': 166)

4 It is not permissible for a believer to stop talking to another believer, whether they are relatives or ordinary Muslims, for more than three days. (Sahih Muslim: 2560)(There is a big difference between not talking and severing the relationship. In the light of Islamic teachings, one can cut off the word from someone for three days, but they can never cut off the relationship.)

5 If there is cutoff of relationship between the two brothers, other Muslims can modestly lie to reconcile the two brothers. (Sahih Abi Dawud: 4921)

6 In the last stage, it comes that a person suffers from the other side and if he is patient with this suffering and remains silent, then the help of Allah is with them, and for those who leave patience and take the path of detachment do wrong. (Sahih Muslim: 2558)

The Prophet ﷺ conduct towards others Including enemies

The Prophet PBUH used to treat outsiders and even enemies very kindly and full of forgiveness, so much so that even his enemies stood his witness

❖ Even after being wounded in the battle of Uhud, he prayed for them When he was wounded, the companions said, "O Messenger of Allah! we wish you would make curse for these infidels, so that they would reach their bad fate" but Prophet PBUH replied, "I have not come to curse, Rather, I have come to call to the right path and God has sent me as a greatest mercy." After that he prayed: "Bare Elaha! Forgive my people and guide them to the right path; Because she doesn't know me."

❖ Dealing with the Enemy who attempted to kill On Zaat al-Raqqa, when the Prophet PBUH was resting under the shade of a trees one of the enemies Ghorus bin Harith sneaked upon Prophet PBUH and drew his sword with the intention of killing him, with help of Allah situation was reversed but Prophet spared him, He was greatly impressed by Prophet's forgiveness and kindness so much so that when he went to his people, he said to the people: I have come from the Highest among the dwellers on earth.

❖ Treatment of an ill-behaved Arab on a journey. During a journey, Prophet PBUH was wearing a cloak. An Arab showed up and started to forcefully pull down the cloak, it bruised Prophet PBUH's neck and shoulders, Prophet PBUH tolerated this insolent behavior with laughter and ordered Barley and dates to be loaded of this Arab's camel's each side as a gift to him

❖ Prophet PBUH dealing with a bad-mouthed Jew. On one occasion, the Prophet PBUH took a loan from the Jew name Zayd bin Sina, with an agreed Payment date but he came and demanded payment 3 days earlier & used insolent behavior and pulled cloak from Prophet's blessed shoulder, he started using abusive language in front of Umar RZ who could not tolerate it, But prophet asked Umar RZ to pay off his debt and give 20 portions more Barley in compensation for his rebuke."

❖ Treatment of the woman who gave poison to Prophet PBUH Zainab Binte Harith, A jewish women from Khaiber offered a roasted goat in Prophet's service she poisoned it and some of the companions died due to this poison, and the Prophet PBUH was also affected by the poison, but he did not question her

❖ On the conquest of Makkah Prophet's conduct for his enemies Prophet declared general amnesty to all and said "don't be afraid on this day. May Allah forgive you and He is the Merciful.

In Makkah, Abu Lahab and Uqbah bin Abi Muayt were neighbours of the Prophet PBUH who lived on either side, they used to do the worst of Mischief, Apart from opposing, They did not refrain from harassing at home as well, to torture, they would throw piles of filth at Prophet PBUH door. When the Prophet would go out, he would remove this filth from the path and only say: "O sons of Abd Manafi! What are you doing? Is this the right of neighbourliness"

(Tabqat Ibne Sa'ad, Volume 1, Page 201)

It is narrated from Aisha RA that the Prophet PBUH said: Jibreel PBUH kept instructing me about the rights of my neighbours so much that I began to think that neighbours might also have some inheritance of property (Sahih Al Bukhari)

Aisha RA narrated that the Prophet (PBUH) was resting with me once when the neighbour's pet goat came and went towards the bread that I had cooked for the Prophet. It picked up the bread and was going back. I got very angry at goat, and hurried towards the door to stop it, then the Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: "Don't hurt your neighbour by hurting their goat. (Al Adab al mufrad bab al Yuzi Jara – Zaeef)

It was narrated from Abu Dharr RZ, that my beloved, the Prophet, PBUH, commanded me that when you cook curries, make more stew in it. Then send this good thing to your neighbour too. (Muslim, Kitab al-Bir Al-Kulun)

Ibn Abbas RZ said that the Prophet PBUH said: He cannot be a Momi'n who eats full, and his neighbour remains hungry. (Tabarani, Majma' al Zawa'id)

Abu Hurairah RZ narrated that a person said: O Messenger of Allah (PBUH)! It is known about a certain woman that she often prays, fasts and gives charity but hurts her neighbours with her tongue. Prophet PBUH said: She would be in Hell.

The Companions asked the Holy Prophet: How will we know whether we have done good or bad? Prophet PBUH said: When your neighbours says that you have done a good deed, Then indeed it is good and when you heard them saying that you have done a wrong deed, then you have done wrong (Ibn Majah).

Prophet PBUH said: By Allah he is not the (perfect) believer 3 times, When asked: O Prophet of Allah who is not a believer ? the Messenger PBUH said: The person whose neighbour is not safe from his evils and intended mischiefs (Bukhari, Muslim)

The Messenger of Allah PBUH said: He will not enter Paradise whose neighbour is not protected from his troubles and evil. (Muslim)

The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: And he who believes in Allah and His Messenger, should not hurt his neighbour

The Prophet PBUH said: He who does not show mercy to the young and does not respect the elders is not one of us (Sunan Abi Dawud: 4943, bab fi tarjama)

Prophet PBUH's Treatment with his children & Grand children

When Prophet PBUH Son Ibrahim died, Prophet was very sad, and tears were flowing from your eyes, Abd al-Rahman bin Auf RZ inquired in a surprising tone:

Are you also crying? Prophet PBUH replied, O Ibn Awf, this is mercy, no doubt tears are flowing, the heart is sad; But even in this state of grief, we will say the same thing that pleases Allah, then he said: O Ibrahim, we are saddened by your separation, (Bukhari: 1303)

Looking at this situation. Anas RZ said: I have not seen anyone more compassionate towards his family than Prophet PBUH (Muslim: 2316).

Prophet Peace be upon him once bought his grand child Hazrat Hassan RZ or Hussain RZ with him for prayers and started leading the prayer, in the middle of the prayer, the Prophet PBUH prostrated for a long time: Hazrat Shaddad RZ says: I raised my head and saw that the child was sat on the back of the Prophet PBUH and he was in prostration, so I went back in prostration, After prayers were completed companions enquired why the Holy Prophet prostrated for a long time during the prayer? They told "we assumed something must have happened; May be there was revelations from Allah etc" He said: There was none of those things happened; On the contrary, my son was riding on my back, I did not consider it appropriate to finish the Sajdah before fulfilling the desire of child to play (Musnad Ahmad: 16033).

Iqra Bin Habis saw that Prophet PBUH was kissing Hazrat Hasan, he enquired that "I have ten children, I have never kissed anyone, Prophet PBUH said: He who does not show mercy, he will not be shown mercy (Bukhari: 5997, Chapter Rahmat al-Wald wa Taqbilah).

Once Prophet PBUH was kissing Hasan RA, a villager expressed his surprised to which Prophet said, "If Allah removed mercy from your heart, what can I do?" (Bukhari: 5998), Once Prophet PBUH sat in the courtyard of Hazrat Fatimah's house and inquired about Hazrat Hasan. After a while he came, Prophet PBUH embraced him, kissed him and He said: O Allah! I love Hasan, You too love those who love Hasan (Bukhari: 3749, Chapter Manaqib al-Hasan).

When the daughter of Prophet PBUH Hazrat Zainab RA passed away and had a small daughter Amama (Grand daughter of Prophet PBUH), he showered a lot of love and compassion to her, sometimes bring her to the mosque, She would even sit on Prophet's back while in prayer, Prophet would put her down while prostrating and would put her on his shoulders when in reciting in standing in Qayam (Bukhari: 516).

Prophet PBUH's Treatment with other children

Abu Musa Ash'ari says that a boy was born in my house, I went at Prophet PBUH's door, he named him Ibrahim, He did Tahnik (daubed child's palate) with dates (Bukhari: 5467, Chapter Naming of the Birth).

Once Prophet PBUH called Umm Khalid, dressed her in a special shirt, and said: Wear it until it becomes old (Bukhari: 5823, Chapter Al-Khamisa al-Suda).

Once Prophet PBUH lifted and embraced a child, the child urinated on his cloth, Prophet PBUH washed it by pouring water on it. (Bukhari: 6002, Bab Wazeh asabi fi sajar)

Hazrat Anas RZ Says I had a younger brother whose name was Umayr RZ, Umayr had a pet bird, The Prophet PBUH came by and said invited his curiously to by saying "O Abu Umayr, what happened to your bird? (Bukhari: 612, Chapter 612)

Precedence of Children in Rights

Once a juice or liquid was bought to Prophet PBUH assembly, Prophet PBUH drank from it, After that he noted a child on his right side and his companions on left side, Prophet PBUH approached the child and asked, "if you permit, Shall I give This drink to elders first The child replied, No, by Allah, to get blessings from your drink, I cannot give priority to anyone over my right, this: Upon hearing the Prophet (peace be upon him) he handed over the cup to him (Bukhari: 2366 Bab, Man, Rai An, Sahabal Houz, Alq)

Prophet PBUH behaviour with Jewish Child

A child of a Jewish man was in Prophet's service, he fell ill once, the Prophet PBUH visited him, and sat near child's head, then said to the child: Islam Accept, the child looked at his father, and the father also said: Obey Abu al-Qasim (1) So that child became a Muslim, the Prophet PBUH came out saying, Al-Hamdu lillah-i-al-dhi-i-anqaza-min-al-naar. Al-Bukhari: 1352)

The Special status of the Girl

in the era of ignorance, the Arabs considered the birth of a girl a shame for themselves-s. Prophet PBUH safeguarded the rights to girls, Educated Arabs to respect them, preached to spend for their upbringing and care, so he said: He who upbrings 2 daughters until they reach adulthood, on the Day of Resurrection, He will be together with Prophet (Muslim: 2631, Chapter Fazl al-Ihsan ila Al-Binat).`

There were five options regarding the prisoners of war (1) They killed them (2) They left them as they were (3) They released them with a ransom (4) They exchanged prisoners (5) They made them slaves. And at the same time, the Prophet PBUH emphasized that the prisoners of war should not be harmed in any way.

First, this situation occurred on after Battle of Badr, at that time the Prophet consulted what should be done with prisoners? His usual practice was that in cases where revelation did not come, he used to consult the Companions. Hazrat Umar's advice was to kill, as it was customary to kill prisoners of war during that period. Abu Bakr's opinion was that they should not be killed, but should be released with a ransom, Firstly Muslims will benefit from their ransom, and on the other hand, they will feel our favor on them, Perhaps they will become Muslims later. Eventually most of them became Muslims.

- A ransom was received from the captives of Badr according to their status, which ranged from 1,000 dirhams to 4,000 dirhams.
- Hazrat Abbas (had not accepted Islam until that time) paid the ransom for himself and his ally and was released. (Sahih Bukhari, Vol 1, Kitabal Magazi)
- If some of them were poor and could not afford ransom, they were released without ransom.
- Among the captives of Badr, those who knew how to read and write were given a condition that they should teach ten Muslim children to read and write and that would be their ransom and once children were taught, they are free (Musnad Ahmad)
- Hazrat Zayd bin Thabit, who did not know how to read and write, learned to read and write in this way. (Taqabat Ibn Saad - Vol. 2. Page 14)
- Among the prisoners of the Battle of Badr was Abu Aziz bin Umayr, who was the brother of Hazrat Musab bin Umayr. It is his statement that I was imprisoned in the house of the Ansar, their condition was that in the morning and evening when they brought food, they would put the whole food in front of me and eat dates themselves. I used to be so ashamed. He would repeatedly insist that you should also eat bread, but they did not accept and always had the same answer that the Holy Prophet PBUH has ordered us to treat the prisoners well. (Al-Tabari page 1338)
- The captives of Badr, Abu Uzza, Amr bin Abdullah bin Uthman were very poor and did not have the strength to pay the ransom. He described his condition in the service of the Holy Prophet. The Holy Prophet (PBUH) released him on the condition that he would never take part in the war against the Muslims in the future. (Sirat Ibn Hisham Volume 2 Page 31)

The Banu Huwazin were defeated in the Battle of Hunain, taking many prisoners and booty. But Prophet PBUH freed the prisoners of war on the request of the tribesmen.

The prisoners of Banu Mustalaq were also freed in the same way as above. When the prisoners of war came in Ghazwa Marisiyyah, the reason for their freedom was that the Holy Prophet freed his slave from war Hazrat Jawaria bint Al-Harith RA, who was the daughter of a chief, and married her. The Companions said, "Now so this family has become the in-laws of the Prophet PBUH, so we free everyone. It is not appropriate to keep Prophet's relatives under arrest, everyone left the prisoners as they were."

When the daughter of Hatim Tai came under arrest, the Holy Prophet PBUH granted her to stay at the corner section of the mosque and respectfully said that if someone comes to your city, I will send you with them. So after a few days, she was sent to Yemen with one person from her city by giving travel equipment and food.

Hazrat Zayd bin Arqam RZ said, The Prophet (PBUH) visited me for wellbeing due to an eye problem. (Abu Dawud, Chapter in Al-Iyada min al-Ramd, Kitab al-Janaiz)

Hazrat Ali RZ that he said, "if a person visits for wellbeing of a sick person in the evening, 70 thousand angels comes out with him seeking forgiveness for him until the morning, till he is granted a new garden in paradise, and whoever goes out for wellbeing of a sick person in the morning, 70 thousand angels come out asking for forgiveness for him till evening, until he is granted a new garden in paradise (Abu Dawud, Chapter Fazl al-Aiyadah ala wudu)

Hazrat Abu Huraira RZ, said that the Messenger of Allah PBUH , said: He who visits a sick person is called by a caller from heaven (Angel), You are Good and Your behavior is good, and you made a special palace for yourself in Paradise (Tirmidhi, Ibn Hayyan, Ibn Majah)

Hazrat So'ban RZ says that Prophet PBUH said: If a Muslim visits a Muslim brother's wellbeing ,then will be like a fruit of Paradise till he returns, upon enquiring what is Khurfat Al-Jinnah Prophet PBUH said: A Fruits of Paradise - (Muslim Kitab al-Albir, Baat Fazl Iyadat ul Mareez)

Hazrat ibne Abbas narrated that Prophet PBUH said : Whoever visits a sick person whose time of death has not yet come, then says this 7 times "I pray to Allah who is possor of Arsh, that he heals you" and Allah will heal his disease (Abu Dawud, Kitab Al-Janaiz, Al-Munjam 8, Bab Al-Duaa for the Patient at Al-Ayadah)
In front of the patient, one should say kind words that pleases patient's heart.

Hazrat Abu Saeed Kudri RZ said that Prophet PBUH , said: "When you visit a sick person, reduce worry about death from his heart, Because this will make his heart

Happy (comfortable), (Tirmidhi Chapters of Al-Tib Muhjum 35, Chapter of Tib Nafs al-Amraz).

Hazrat Abu Umama (RZ) It is narrated that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him).He said that he said that the completion of visiting a patient when you places your hand on his forehead or asks him how he is , And the completion of your Salam is a handshake between you. (Tirmidhi, Bab Al-Istizaan, bab MaJa Safi Mujam 31)

Hazrat Anas RZ said that the Messenger of Allah PBUH said Visit the sick people and ask them to pray for you, because the prayer of the sick person is accepted, and his sins are forgiven. (Al-Targheeb Wal Tarheeb, reference Tabarani) the person whose sins have been forgiven, the expectations of his supplications would increase.

It is not appropriate to sit with the patient for a long time unnecessarily: Hazrat Anas RZ said that the Messenger of Allah PBUH said: The visitation should be equal to the "Fuwaqe Naqah" (Limited to necessary) Hazrat Saeed Ibn Musyab RZ In the hadith says that is The best way to visit is that the visitor should getup quickly for leaving (Mishkwat al-Salih, Kitab al-Janaiz with reference to Baheeqii).

The poor and the needy will precede the rich in going to Paradise) [Tirmidhi, Hadith No: 2353]

Abdullah bin Abbas RZ and Imran bin Huseen (RZ) that Prophet PBUH Said, I peeked in Paradise and saw there were lot poor and unprivileged of this world, Then I ran my eyes through the hell and most of its dwellers were women. [Bukhari with al-Fath, Hadith number: 6449]

And Allah took a solid covenant (Agreement) from the children of Israel do not worship except Allah and take good care of their parents. You will also kindly treat relatives, orphans and the poor and speak well to people, and establish prayer, and give alms (charity) to your poor, Then Except few most of you turned your faces away and threw this agreement to your back [Surah Baqarah: 83]

Conduct properly and contribute with Poor:

- To behave modestly with poor: (Kahf: 28)
- Feeding Poor (Ma'oon: 1-3)
- Meeting the needs of the poor and needy: (Noor: 22)
- Helping the poor and the needy is the sign of a true believer: (Baqarah: 177)
- Financial support for the poor and the needy (Surah Ma'arij, 24, 25,38)
- Poor and Relatives are the first deserving of charity : [Muslim, Hadith No: 995]
- Taking care of the poor and needy while distribution of inheritance: (An-Nisaa: 8)
- Giving the poor and needy without them asking Surah Baqarah: 272-274]
- Giving to the poor instead of wasteful spending: (Surah Daraya: 19)
- Helping the poor Marrying : [Surah Noor: 32]
- Giving loans to the poor: (Baqarah: 280)
- Refraining from scolding and benevolence: (Sahih: 10)
- Protecting the property of the poor and needy: (Kahf: 79)

Hazrat Umm Salama (RA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah (PBUH) used to say during his illness of death to be punctual of prayers and take care of slaves and he continued repeat it again and again till his tongue started to stop. (Ibn Maja, Bab Maja fi Zikr of disease of the Prophet of Allah PBUH, Hadith: 1625)

Prophet PBUH Urged to treat servants like brothers and not burden them with task they could not do if you do burden them, then help them do it. (Bukhari: Bab Manyanhi man al-Sabab and alhan, Hadith: 5703)

Emphasis on payment of salary and wage on time

Remuneration should be paid to the workers before their sweat dries up (Sunan Ibn Majah, Bab Ajr al-Jijara, Hadith: 2443).

Urged to determine the amount & effort of work

Do not ask slaves to do such work that is beyond their power and strength (Mou'ta Imam Malik, AlAmar Bil Rafq bil mamluk Hadith 3953)

Insisted on forgiving servants for their mistakes

It is narrated by Ibne Umar RZ that a man came to the service of the Messenger of Allah PBUH and said: O Messenger of Allah! To what extent should we forgive the mistakes of our servant, he asked twice:

He remained silent then when he asked for the third time, he said: Seventy times every day (Abu Dawud: 5164)

Emphasis on moderation while admonishing slaves

The Holy Prophet PBUH never hit a woman or a servant with his own hand (Muslim: Chapter Mu'baadata Salahu alahiwasalm, Hadith: 2328).

Urged to feed Servants from what you eat yourself

On the authority of Hazrat Abu Huraira, may Allah be pleased with him, the Messenger of Allah said: When the servant of one of you prepares and brings food for you by enduring the heat and smoke, then the master should make him sit with him and feed him, so if the food is very little, he should put a small morsel of this food on his hand. (Muslim: Chapter Ta'am al-Mamluk Mamayakul, Hadith: 4407)

Give supplications (Du'a) to the servant

It was narrated from Ibn Abbas RZ that once the Prophet PBUH was in the house of Hazrat Maimunah.

I bought water for his Ablutions in the night, Hazrat Maimunah RA said that O Messenger of Allah! This water has been kept for you by Abdullah bin Abbas (RZ). The Prophet (PBUH) said: O Allah! Grant him understanding of religion and grant and understand the interpretation of the book (Quran) (Musnad Ahmad: Musnad Abdullah Bin Abbas Radi Allahu Anhu, Hadith: 3033).

The behaviour of the Prophet PBUH with his servant Anas (RZ)

Hazrat Anas (RZ) says: "I served him during the journey and in dwelling place. By Allah, He PBUH never said that why did you do this work like that for the work that I did, Nor did He PBUH said why you did not do it. (Muslim: Bab Kan of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, Blessing for People creation Hadith: 2309).

Kindness of Prophet PBUH to his Companions to Zayd Bin Haritha RZ

Hazrat Zayd Bin Haritha RZ, who had become a slave by accident, came into Prophet PBUH possession in a state of slavery, his father was very saddened by the separation and unknown state of his son. He also recited poems on the parting of his son. He somehow came to know that Zayd was Prophet PBUH slave. He came and demanded his son's freedom. Prophet PBUH Replied Zayd is free with his father or stay here if he wants. Hazrat Zayd preferred his slavery to his father. It was the result of Prophet's PBUH Grace, kindness and behaviour that Hazrat Zayd preferred Prophet's company over his father and his family and his tribe, (Al-Tabarani 4659).

The Prophet PBUH emphasized the best behaviour towards the delicate Gender.

The Prophet himself PBUH acted emphasized women to be treated with virtuousness, Goodness, best behavior and to be offered Good company. It was narrated from Hazrat Aisha that the Messenger of Allah said: The best among you are those who treat their women well, and I am among you who treat my women in the best manner (Tirmidhi) Kitab Al-Manaqib: Chapter Fadl of the Prophet's Wives, Hadith: 3895), I exhort you to be good to women (Muslim: Kitab al-Razah, Chapter Al-Wasiyat Bil-Nisaa, Hadith: 1468)

in a hadith the Prophet PBUH, has described good behavior and kindness towards women as a condition of perfection of faith: Among Muslims, the faith of the man whose moral behavior is more perfect (with all) (and especially) with his wife where he has attitude of serenity and love with her. (Al-Mustadrak: Kitab al-Iman: Hadith: 173)

Prophet PBUH friendly behavior towards his wives

Narrated by Aisha RA that I was with the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) on a journey and we had a friendly running competition between ourselves, and I came first Later, when my gained some weight over years, then once during that time we competed again, and Prophet PBUH won. (Bab fi al-Saqb al-Arqall, Hadith: 2578)

Prophet PBUH forbade the oppression of woman

None of you should beat his wife the way a slave is beaten (During era of ignorance, and then approach her the next day to complete sexual intercourse (Bukhari: 2908).

Emphasis on concession of rights for women

Ibn Abbas used to say that I like to adorn myself to please my wife, just as she adorns herself to please me, because the Allah Says women also have rights just as men have rights over them according to the doctrine of Islam, I do not want her give care for all my rights, even though Allah Almighty It is said that "and men have superiority over women) (Sunan al-Kubra by Bayhaqi: Chapter Haqq al-Maratna alal-Aswaj, Hadith: 15505) Meaning, just as men have superiority over women in every aspect, in the same way He should also be superior for them in terms of morals. (returning their rights)

Prophet PBUH used to help and assist his wives for household

When Aisha Siddiqa RA was enquired about the household of the Prophet PBUH , She replied “Prophet PBUH used to milk their goats, sew his clothes, and do his own chores, would sew his shoes and do all the work that men do in their homes, He would also engage in the service of the families and leave when it was time for prayer (Tirmidhi: 2489).

Virtue of raising girls

Prophet Said whoever raises 2 daughters until they reach adulthood, on the Day of Resurrection, He will be together with Prophet (Muslim: 2631, Chapter Fazl al-Ihsan ila Al-Binat) (Bukhari: Chapter Rahmat al-Olad, Hadith: 5995

Ruling on ignore the shortcomings of women:

No Muslim man should hate a Muslim woman because she has any habits of his unlinking, Because if one habit is disliked, another habit may be the of his liking (Muslim: Bab al-Wasiyah Balin-Nisaa, Hadith: 1469).

The use of mass media in the life of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ

To spread Islam, establish peace and security, Prophet PBUH worked diligently to evaluate the response of different nations towards Islam, He PBUH determined the direction of mutual relations with these nations, Prophet PBUH sent emissary to the rulers of the great empires of the time, Established diplomatic relations with the princes of the autonomous states and the chiefs of the tribes Thus regularly maintained touch with abroad nations along with this, This became the basis of diplomacy and Islamic foreign policy

Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) used to choose the ambassadors especially that their personality should be dignified and attractive, just like when sending to the court of Emperor Rome he appointed Hazrat Wahiyya Kalbi was appointed, who was the most intelligent and knowledgeable and was part of all the journeys of the Prophet and embraced Prophet's PBUH etiquettes

Apart from that, if they were mature Muslims in practical terms, have good morals and if they have a wide and deep knowledge of Islam, have a good way of expressing thoughts and ideas in the language of the people of the area, familiar with the psychology, lifestyle and condition were observed closely by Holy Prophet PBUH for arranging to write letters in the local language of different regions so that during the invitation to spread the religion, the meaning would be understood by the addressees There should be no ambiguity in understanding.

Diplomatic activities in the Islamic system of politics began formally when Badail bin Warqa, the chief of the Khuza'a tribe, along with a few important companions, met the Holy Prophet (PBUH) on the occasion of the Peace of Hdaybiyyah. After that, this series continued more or less until after the conquest of Makkah, when the Arabs realized that they no longer had the power to fight with the Holy Prophet PBUH they joined forces. They started appearing in the in the court of Prophet PBUH for pledge of allegiance. This event is of 9 Hijri, that's why it is called Aam al Wafood (13)

Approach of the Prophet ﷺ with non-Muslim ambassadors

- He (PBUH) used to honor and respect delegations and ambassadors and arrange the best accommodation and food for them. He used to reward them with gifts and even arranged things for their return journey.
- When a large delegation of Banu Najran came to Madinah, the Prophet PBUH not only accommodated them in the Prophet's Mosque, but also allowed them to pray facing the Holy City of Jerusalem. (14)
- Similarly, when the delegation of Banu Thaqif came, the Holy Prophet (PBUH) honored them, set up tents especially for them, Prophet Appointed Khalid bin Saeed bin Al-Aas RZ as Liaison Officer for negotiations and feasting with them- (15)
- He accepted the gifts of the governor of Oman and gave five hundred dirhams as a gift to the ambassador. (16)
- When the delegation of Madinah tribe started going back, these people had less food, so the Prophet (PBUH) urged Hazrat Umar RZ to provide them with food and supplies. (17)
- In the same way, each member of the delegation of Banu Tha'alah was given five ounces of silver while going back. (18)
- The Prophet PBUH was so concerned about the safety and honor of the ambassadors that he said about the ambassadors (Al Jaiz wa Alwafd, Banhu Mumaknat Aj Jaiz hum 19)
- In addition, the first appointment of an ambassador in an Islamic era also used to happen during military or semi-military campaigns. These were intended to invite neighboring kings can be invited to Islam or at least developing understanding and encouraged to sign peace pact with the Islamic realm, This would on one hand the door of universal propagation of Islam can be opened, on the other hand avoid conflicts and aggression or Reduce risks. As a result, these embassies played a significant role in fostering goodwill and friendship among their respective rulers. (20)

There are many miracles of the Messenger of Allah, may Allah bless him and grant him peace, it is numbered more than 1000, as detailed mentioned by Ibn Qayyim, may God have mercy on him, in "Ighatha Allah Faan" (Vol. 2, p. 347, Dar al-Maarif, Riyadh).

Some of these miracles happened and came to end but some will remain as long as Allah wills.

Following are some of the miracles:

- 1) Among these is one of the biggest miracle of Prophet PBUH and it is also the biggest evidence of Prophethood of Nabi Kareem (PBUH), it is "The Holy Quran", Its verses will remain forever, and no change can occur in It, The Noble Quran is also a miracle in sense that the commands are firm from its verses, the entire humanity cannot produce justly laws like Qur'an even if try.
- 2) The Miracle of Isra'a (Nightly Journey to Jerusalem) and Mi'raj, (ascension to Heavens), the Holy Qur'an has mentioned Isra'a with absolute clarity, while it has only indicated about Mi'raj, but there is a detailed mention of Mi'raj in many hadiths.
- 3) The miracle of the splitting of the moon into two parts is mentioned in the Holy Qur'an, and this miracle is frequently mentioned in the blessed hadiths, such as Ibn Kathir, may God have mercy on him, and Scholars have a consensus about this.
- 4) The small amount of food placed in front of the Prophet increased so much that the entire army was satisfied with it, and still the food was left over, This incident is recorded as "Sahih" in Buqari, Muslim and Lot of Other books of Hadees.
- 5) Water flowing from the fingers of the Prophet PBUH and "A Little water" become so much that the whole army would be quenched from it by drinking and perform ablution, This is also recorded in Buqari and Muslim which are topmost books of Hadees.
- 6) Prophet Muhammad's PBUH prediction of the future and then those things happened in the same way and we continue to witness all of them coming true exactly as predicated by Prophet Muhammad PBUH.
- 7) When Prophet PBUH got a pulpit made and left the trunk of the date palm, so it began to cry in his separation there are Sahih Hadees recorded for this in Buqari.

With the call of Muhammad (PBUH) to Islam, when the religion and truth began to flourish day by day and great personalities like Hamza RZ and Umar (RZ) also reverted to Islam, Islam was greatly strengthened, but as Islam grew from into poor and the weak. Increasingly, the opposition of Quraysh spread among these dignitaries.

Now Quraysh started to torture the poor Muslims, which the Muslims continued to tolerate for the sake of Islam, but the Prophet PBUH could not tolerate the oppression and persecution of these innocents and ordered the Muslims to migrate to Abyssinia for the sake of safety. Abyssinia which was a Christian country. King Najashi here was merciful. There were two migrations towards Abyssinia.

By the order of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), the Muslims made the first migration in the fifth year of Prophethood, which included 11 men and 4 women. Son in Law of Prophet Uthman (RZ) and Daughter of Prophet Ruqayyah (RA) were also among them.

When some of the people who went to Abyssinia returned and saw that the trials and tribulations of the Muslims had increased, then the Messenger of Allah (PBUH) allowed the Muslims to migrate again. More than eighty (80) men and nineteen (19) women were involved in this migration. ((Al-Sirah al-Nabawiyah by Ibn Hisham: 1/408. Ibn Ishaq narrated it with a chain of transmission. Wizar al-Ma'ad: 3/26))

Hijrat of Abyssinia's Wisdom and Lessons:

- ★ If it becomes difficult and impossible for a person to worship Allah by staying in Dar al-Kufr, then it is necessary for him to move to a place where he can freely worship Allah.
- ★ Sacrificing one's life, wealth and country in the path of Allah is also included in the basic matters of religion, because if religion ends, then what is the use of life, wealth or country
- ★ It is permissible for Muslims to seek shelter from non-Muslims in such turbulent situations, whether they are non-Muslims of the Book like Najashi who was Christian or polytheists like the returning Muslims who entered Makkah after taking protection with some polytheist leaders. and the Messenger of Allah (PBUH) had the protection and support of Hazrat Abu Talib, and he (PBUH) returned from Taif at that time, he had taken shelter and protection from Mut'am bin Adi. (Fiqh al-Sura al-Nabawiyah for Al-Buti, pp: 100-102))

- ☐ When the pledge of allegiance was completed, the Prophet (PBUH) instructed the Muslims of Mecca to migrate from Mecca to Medina. So, the Muslims left their homes and everything and migrated from Makkah.
- ☐ Although the Muslims were migrating in small numbers, it became known, Polytheists banned Muslims from leaving Makkah to prevent their migration.
- ☐ Only two months after the Pledge of Allegiance of Uqba, the only Muslims who remained in Makkah except the Holy Prophet, Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique and Hazrat Ali, who were held back by the polytheists.
- ☐ The Holy Prophet Peace be upon him was waiting for Allah's order to depart.
- ☐ Abu Bakr Siddique's RZ departure necessities were packed and tied. But the Prophet PBUH said to him: "You stay in Makkah for now, it is expected that I will also get permission." Hazrat Abu Bakr said: "my parent's can be sacrificed upon you" Do you! o Holy Prophet PBUH! hope for that? The Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: "Yes." After this decree of the Holy Prophet Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique stayed in Makkah and he had two she camels in his possession.
- ☐ When the Quraysh saw that the Companions had gradually migrated to Medina and that the Holy Prophet PBUH was also about to go there, the leaders of the Quraysh gathered in Darul-Nadwah for advice. There Iblees came in the form of an old man. Abujhal said: "A healthy and strong men should be taken from each tribe, all together should attack Muhammad PBUH and Get rid by hitting him PBUH with swords in succession. In this way, the blood of Muhammad (peace be upon him) will not be the head of any tribe. The people of the tribe of Muhammad (peace be upon him) and Their allies do not dare to wage war on the whole of Arabia. A plan to implement this opinion was approved.
- ☐ "Remember the time when the disbelievers were plotting against you to imprison you or kill you or drive you out and they were plotting, and Allah was plotting and Allah Ta'ala was plotting the best is the one who plans." (Surat al-Anfal, verse (30))
- ☐ After the verdict of murdering the Prophet PBUH had been decided, Angel Gabriel (peace be upon him) came to the service of the Prophet PBUH with the revelation of his Lord and informed him of the conspiracy of the Quraysh. Allah has given permission for the Prophet (PBUH) to leave here and fixed the time of migration saying that he (PBUH) should not spend this night in the same bed that he used to spend it on until now.

- ❑ After the death of Abu Talib, the Quraysh made all efforts to cause trouble to the Messenger of Allah (PBUH) In this situation, the Prophet PBUH decided to go to Taif so that may be Banu Shaqif would help him and provide him with protection against the Quraysh. You hoped that they would accept Islam.
- ❑ Three months after the death of Khadija (RA), the Messenger (PBUH) visited Taif. There were still a few days left for Shawwal 10 with Zayd Bin Haritha (RZ)
- ❑ Messenger of Allah (PBUH) Arrived at Taif and met the chiefs of Banu Shaqif, Abdialail, Masoud and Habib. These three were the sons of Umru bin Ameer. The Holy Prophet (PBUH) told them the message of Islam. They did not accept but started mocking Prophet PBUH, He (PBUH) was disappointed with them he told them that at least you should not inform other people about this conversation so that they do not cause wrongdoings to him. They did not accept even this but put their slaves and ignorant children behind the Messenger of Allah. They started making noise and calling slanders and people gathered.
- ❑ These hard hearted people treated Prophet PBUH very badly and pushed you to a garden. That garden belonged to Rabi'a's sons and Utbah and Shiba. They were both there. Seeing them, Banu Shaqif audience disbursed . You sat down in the shade of grape tree you found. The two sons from Rabia were watching and enjoying Prophet PBUH and the people of Taif abuse to Prophet .
- ❑ But when Rabi'a's sons saw the Messenger of Allah PBUH in this condition their paternal bound surged, They asked one of his Christian slaves, whose name was Adas, to offer grapes to the Prophet PBUH. He offered grapes and Prophet recited "Bismillah" before eating. Adas was surprised. The Messenger of Allah PBUH told him that "I am a prophet" so his surprise disappeared and He began to kissed his forehead, blessed hands and feet. The wicked people of Mutaif formed two rows and sat in the path of the Prophet PBUH, when the Prophet PBUH passed through them, they started throwing stones at his blessed feet, They kept pelting stones till Prophet feet were red in blood. This was the most serious suffering that the Prophet PBUH had to suffer in the Path of Allah.
- ❑ He PBUH stayed in Taif for ten days. When the he PBUH faced such a terrible turmoil and trial in Taif, he was deeply saddened and was returning to Makkah. When the Prophet (PBUH) reached place called Qar'an al-Sh'alib, Allah sent angel Gabriel PBUH with angel that commanded mountain, Allah commanded that angel if Prophet PBUH signals then angel should push right and left side mountains of Taif to crush them in between, Prophet PBUH said: "No! Rather I hope is that Allah will create people children who will worship Allah alone and will not associate anything with Him. ((Sahih al-Bukhari: 3231)

Authentic hadiths prove that delegations of jinn appeared in the service of the Holy Prophet PBUH six times.

The incidents of the jinns listening to the Holy Quran and being influenced by it to believe and then inviting their people to the truth while being aware of the truth have been described in two places. One is in Surah al-Jin and the other is in Surah Ahqaf verses 29 to 32.

Abdullah bin Masood, Zubair, Abdullah bin Abbas and Hasan Basri, Saeed bin Jubir, Zar bin Habish, Mujahid, Ikramah and other elders. All of them agree that the event of their first attendance took place in Batin Nakhla. And Ibn Ishaq, Abu Naeem Isfahani and Waqidi's Biya! It is stated that this is the incident of the time when the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) returned to Taif disappointed. On the way you stayed at Nakhla. There, he was reciting the Qur'an in Isha or Fajar or Tahajjud prayer when a group of jinns passed by and stopped to listen to his recitation. Along with this, all traditions also agree that the jinn were not in front of the Holy Prophet on that occasion, nor did he feel their arrival, but later Allah revealed to him through revelation that their attendance and listening to the Qur'an.

Narrated by Bukhari and Muslim on the authority of Abdullah Bin Abbas that the Messenger of Allah PBUH , was going to Bazar Akaz along with some of his Companions upon Reaching a place called Nakhla, Prophet PBUH offered the morning prayer. At that time a group of jinn was passing by. Hearing the sound of recitation, They stopped and listened to the Quran carefully. Being strongly influenced, he embraced Islam. But he did not meet the Holy Prophet. Those people believed on their own and then went to their nation and reported this incident and invited others to faith.

Laylat al-Jin: The incident of Laylat al-Jin that is mentioned in the hadiths, Abdullah Ibn Masud was with the Prophet (peace be upon him). From this it is clearly known that the Prophet PBUH went to a forest near Makkah to preach and invited the jinn and also recited Qur'an to them and answered their questions.

The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was going to Bazar Akaz along with some of his companions, and on the way he offered the morning prayer at the place of Nakhla. At that time a group of jinn was passing by. Hearing the sound of the recitation, he stopped and listened to the Qur'an carefully. Being strongly influenced, he embraced Islam.

But They did not meet the Holy Prophet (PBUH). Those people believed on their own and then went to their people and invited them to believe regarding this incident. Most commentators believe that this incident occurred when the Jinns felt that some of their freedoms had been restricted.

Earlier, the habit of Jinns was to fly towards the sky and try to find out the news from the upper world or from conversation of angels overhear any news from them, he will add it. They used to share this information to fortuneteller, in return obeying Jin's use to help priest in their business was Suddenly, they felt that there was a strong guard of angels everywhere and there was a shower of meteors to chase Jin's away, They tried to go up. But are prevented from going above due to the guards of the angels, and if they are stealthy and intend to leave for some place, meteors will be showered on them. From this, they realized that an event has happened or is about to happen on earth, so these strict arrangements were made.

To find this out, Therefore, delegations of Jinns were sent to the east and west of the earth and everywhere to try to trace the truth. In this effort, they also reached the location of Nakhla and there the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was performing the morning prayer in congregation with his companions. They said, "By Allah, this is the word that has become a barrier between us and the heavenly messages" (Sahih al-Bukhari: 4921).

God Almighty said, "And when We sent to you a group of the jinn, listening to the Qur'an." And when they were present, They said, "Be silent." Then when it was decided, they turned back to their people as a warning. ((Al-Ahqaf 46: 29))

(Say: It has been revealed to me. Indeed, a group of the jinn listened and said, "Indeed, we have heard a wondrous Qur'an that guides us to the right path, so we believe in it, and we will not associate anyone with our Lord" (Al-Jinn 72: 2,1))

Respected Abu Talib died shortly after his release from Sha'b in 10 Nabawi.

Then a few days later, Mother Khadija (RA) also passed away.

Some historians have written that she (RA) passed away two months after the death of Abu Talib. According to some, she died after one month and five days and according to others, she died only after three days. There are other sayings. It is known that she died three years before the Hijra in Ramadan 10 of the Prophethood.

Thus, after a short interval, when Respected Abu Talib and then Hazrat Khadija Passed away to Allah, mountains of troubles fell on the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. Abu Talib was like a strong Armor for the Holy Prophet (PBUH) and Hazrat Khadija (RA) used to help him with utmost sincerity in the promotion of Islam and provided him with comfort in difficult situations.

When Abu Talib died, the Quraysh began to treat him badly, It was not possible during His life. Once a bad and wicked man came before Prophet PBUH and this tyrant threw dirt on M's head. Prophet entered the house in the same condition. His PBUH daughters used to wash the dust from his blessed head and used to cry., Prophet PBUH used to comfort them by saying: Daughter! don't cry Allah will protect your father. At the same time, he (PBUH) also said: "The Quraysh did not treat me like this while Abu Talib was alive. ""

Due to the breakdown of these successive abominations and sufferings, some historians have called this year "Aam al-Hazn" meaning the year of sorrow. Following these historians, Dr. Buti in Fiq Al-Siratein , and Safi-ur-Rehman Mubarakpuri has written Aam Al-Hazn this year in Al-Rahiq Al-Makhtoum. Al-Albani has objected to this name in his book Defense of Hadith al-Nabawi and Seerah in his research this name comes in a hadith narrated by Qastalani in his book of Seerah "Al-Muwahib". There is no reliable narrator in the chain of this hadith. Although it is not proven that Prophet PBUH named this year himself. (Defence of Hadith of the Prophet and Seerah of Lal al-Albani, p: (8) Allama Suyuti and others have written We believe that the real cause of grief was the hardships that the Prophet PBUH had to endure this year from the disbelievers in the path of Da'wa-e-Islamiyyah and their actions in trying to stop him (PBUH) from what he was doing, you became a source of torture for the Prophet PBUH.

Najashi's actual name is Asmaha, and his father's name is Abhar, Najashi was a royal title, king of Abyssinia, also known as Atiya in Arabia.

When the persecution of Quraysh did not decrease, Muhammad PBUH ordered the Muslims to migrate to Abyssinia; So many Muslims migrated from Mecca to Abyssinia, Abyssinia at that time Asmaha al-Najashi was the king, and Najashi treated the Muslims very well.

When the Quraysh came to know the state of this benevolence, they hesitated and finally decided that a delegation to King Najashi should go and present a request to hand over our criminals (Muslims) to us. For this campaign, Umru Bin al-As and Abdullah bin Rabi'ah were elected. When these people arrived in Abyssinia, they first met all the priests and presented gifts to smoothed them to fulfill their purpose. Then got permission to meet King Najashi Asmaha's court and made an offering, Najashi inquired about the reason for the arrival, They expressed their demand and he inquired from the priests. They also unanimously supported their demand for Quraysh, but King Najashi. Said: I will talk openly with these people myself, If they are found guilty as you say, I will return them; Otherwise, the one who has come under my protection cannot be oppressed. When the Muslims were called to the court, Asmaha asked them what religion you have adopted, This is neither Idol worship nor Christianity or any faith of any nation we knew, Hazrat Jafar RZ advocated on behalf of the Muslims and gave a very effective and touching speech in front of the court, Sharing the attributes of the Prophet (PBUH) and the moral virtues of Islam, after that King Najashi asked Hazrat Jafar RZ to read some part of the Quran; He recited a few opening verses of Surah Maryam, Najashi's was overwhelmed and tears flowed from his eyes, after which he flatly refused to hand over these devotees of Islam to Quraysh.

This incident is a testimony of reversion to Islam, But in addition to this, there is a hadith from Abu Hurairah RZ in Abu Dawud that: "Najashi testified that the Prophet Muhammed PBUH and that the one who gave birth to Jesus, the son of Maryam, said: - In some narrations, it is said that he accepted Islam Pledge of Allegiance to Islam was also given through Hazrat Jafar's hand.

This Muslim's acquaintance in pain and Generous man (died in October 630 A.H.) the Prophet PBUH got the revelation about his death the same day (Narrated by Abu Hurairah that the Prophet announced his death same day as it was in Abyssinia) He PBUH approached prayer mattress and gathered his companions to make rows for prayer and recited four takbeers. He announced his death in Madinah with sorrow and grief and said: "Muslims! Your good and righteous brother has passed away, pray for him and seek forgiveness, then he prayed his absent funeral prayer with the Companions, " It will be improper to say the absent funeral prayer because it has come in the narration that the funeral of the Shah of Abyssinia was revealed before the Holy Prophet and then he offered the funeral prayer, thus it cannot be considered absent funeral prayer

The incident of instant travel to Jerusalem and Ascension to heavens

Instant travel to Jerusalem and Ascension to Heavens were such signs of Allah that the proofs of the true prophethood of the Prophet PBUH, This is also evident the elevated status of Prophet Muhammad PBUH . in the same way this event shows the omnipotence of Allah Almighty, in the same way it also proves that Allah Almighty is beyond and greatest than all creations. Allah Almighty says in Quran:

(سُبْحَانَ الَّذِي أَسْرَى بِعَبْدِهِ لَيْلًا مِّنَ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ إِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ الْأَقْصَى الَّذِي بَارَكْنَا حَوْلَهُ لِنُرِيَهُ مِنْ آيَاتِنَا إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ)

Translation: Glorified is He Who took His servant in one night from Masjid al-Haram to Masjid al-Aqsa, We have blessed all around it and this is why We wanted to show our servant some of our signs. Undoubtedly, He is the Hearer and the Seer. [Al-Israa: 1]

The context of Surah Isra suggests that this event is from the last period of Makkah's life.

Also, it is consistently proven from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, that he was taken to the heavens, the gates of all the heavens were opened for him, even Prophet went beyond the seventh heaven, then Allah Ta'ala spoke to you, gifted five obligatory prayers, which in the beginning were fifty prayers by Allah Ta'ala. were obligatory, so the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) repeatedly asked Allah to reduce it until Allah reduced them to five, and now these five are given to us but the reward for performing these will be of fifty; Because every good deed is rewarded tenfold, and thanks be to Allah for that.

Why and how did Abu Bakr RZ get the title of Siddique? (The Truthful one)

Abu Bakr RZ's most famous title is Siddiq.

"And I called al-Siddiq to confirm the matter of the Messenger of Allah PBUH and everything that came to him. And he said: But before All, al-Siddiq I confirm for him in the news of Isra, "The title of Siddique was given as he preceded in following the Prophet PBUH in everything"

The title of "Siddiq" was revealed by Allah Ta'ala:

In Sunan Dailmi, there is a hadith from Umm Hani (RA) narrated, saying: ". Translation: O Abu Bakr, Allah has given you the name "Siddiq"

It is narrated from Hazrat Ali (RZ), That this title was revealed by Allah, He declares with an oath "Allah Exalted sent down the title of Siddique from heaven for Abu Bakr (Short History of Damascus, Vol. 13, p. 52)

Confirmation of Event Ascension

In the book The History of the Caliphs, it is narrated by Imam Hasan al-Basri and Hazrat Qatadah (Tarikh al-Khulfaas, page 11), this title of his became known from the morning of the day after the Night of Ascension.

A summary of the two Sahih books (Buqari & Muslim) and the history of the caliphs has a narration:

عن عائشة رضي الله عنها قالت جاء المشركون إلى أبي بكر فقالوا هل لك إلى صاحبك يزعم أنه أسري به الليلة إلى بيت المقدس قال أو قال ذلك؟ قالوا نعم فقال لقد صدق إني لأصدق به أبعد من ذلك. نخب السماء غدوة وروحة فلذلك سمي الصديق. (تاريخ الخلفاء ص 11)،

Translation: Hazrat Aisha Siddiqa (RA). On the authority of the Almighty, the polytheists of Makkah came to Hazrat Abu Bakr on the day after the night of Mi'raj and said, "Will you still confirm the truthfulness of your friend?" He PBUH has claimed, "He visited and toured Bayt al-Maqdis in a single night." Abu Bakr Siddiq RZ said: "Prophet has indeed spoken the truth", I used to confirm more important matters in the morning and evening with him than this" From this incident, his nickname "Siddique" became famous. (Tarikh al-Khulfaas, page 11)

Why and how did Umar RZ get the title of Farooq? (The differentiator of truth and false)

On the authority of Ibn Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, I asked Umar bin Al-Khattab, may Allah be pleased with him, why he was called Farooq.

So, Hazrat Umar RZ said, three days before me, Hamza (RZ) became Muslim, then he went on to narrate the incident of Hamza RZ's conversion to Islam, at the end of that incident, He said, when I became a Muslim, I said! O Messenger of Allah peace be upon you! Aren't we on the right path whether we live or die? Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said, "Why not? By the One in whose hand is my life, we among all people are on the right path whether we live or die"

Hazrat Umar (may Allah be pleased with him) says: Then I said, "Then why are we hiding?" By the One who sent the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) with the truth, we will certainly go out (in public), Then we formed two rows along with Prophet PBUH, one row was led by Hamza RZ and another row was with me. As we walked, a light mist was flying like flour from a mill, until we reached the Haram (Ka'ba), Narrated by Hazrat Umar (RZ) Upon entering Haram, When the people of the tribe of Quraysh saw Umar (RZ) and Hamza (RZ) (Openly coming out with declaration of Islam right in Ka'ba) their hearts were hurt in a way that had never been hurt before.

On the same day, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) gave me the title of "Farooq". (The history of Umar Ibn Al-Khattab may Allah be pleased with him) Ibn Jouzi page 6, 7)

Why and how did Uthman RZ get the title of Dhun-Nurain? (The holder of Two lights)

Uthman bin Affan Umayyad Quraishi (47 AH - 35 AH / 576 AH - 656 AD) was the third caliph of Islam, son-in-law of the Prophet PBUH, and the compiler of the Holy Qur'an.

His title or nickname is Zul-Nurain because he married two daughters of Muhammad PBUH, first to Ruqayyah (RA) bint Muhammad, then after her death he married Umm Kulthum bint Muhammad (RA) ,

Ruqayyah, the middle daughter of the Holy Prophet, was first married to Utbah, the son of Abul Lahab, but after Islam, Utbah's father, Abul Lahab, had so much enmity with the Holy Prophet, It was said that he pressured his son to divorce her, the Holy Prophet (PBUH) remarried his daughter to Hazrat Uthman.

When the opportunity for the first migration to Abyssinia came, he took his wife Hazrat Ruqyah with him and left for the country of Abyssinia.

In the first war of disbelief and Islam, which was manifested in the form of Badr, Hazrat Uthman was forced to stay back due to an accidental accident, his wife, Hazrat Ruqayyah RA (Beloved light of the Messenger of Allah's eyes), fell extremely ill, so the Prophet PBUH left them in Madinah for necessary care, while leaving for battle, Prophet PBUH said, Hazrat will get both the rewards of participation and a share of the booty.

This illness of Hazrat Ruqayyah was a sign of death. She could have done everything with the heart and soul of her grieving husband, but how could she reject God's decree? She died a few days later in the absence of Allah, Ina Lilahi wa ina elahi rajioon (to Allah we belong and to Allah we will all return)

Prophet (peace be upon him) married his second daughter, Hazrat Umm Kulsoom (RA) to Hazrat Uthman and his relationship with the Prophet's family was established again.

Umm Kulthum RA died in Shaban 9 AH. The funeral prayer was led by the Holy Prophet (PBUH).

Prophet's ﷺ migration to Medina

- ❑ After receiving the order of emigration, the Prophet PBUH went to Abu Bakr's RZ house at noon to discuss with him all the plans, and stages of departure and Journey.
- ❑ Having decided on the plan of migration, Rasoolullah PBUH came to his house and waited for the night to come.
- ❑ It was the habit of the Prophet PBUH that at the beginning of the night, he would go to sleep after the Isha prayer and after midnight he would leave the house and come to the Masjid Haram and perform the Tahajjud prayer there. That night prophet ordered Hazrat Ali to sleep on his bed and cover his green hazrami blanket. He also said that you would not be harmed by them.
- ❑ When the night got a little dark. A conjuring silence spread everywhere, and when the common people retired to their sleeping quarters, the assassins secretly made their way to the house of the Prophet gathered at the door, and then lay in wait. Seeing Hazrat Ali, they thought that Prophet PBUH was sleeping. Therefore, waited for prophet PBUH to wake up and come out, Thus these people could jump on him PBUH one by one and execute the decree of killing the Prophet PBUH.
- ❑ However, the Quraish, despite their great preparation for the implementation of their plan, met with a complete failure because the Messenger of Allah PBUH came out of the house. He tore the ranks of the polytheists and took a handful of clay with pebbles and threw it on their heads, and Allah caught their eyes (Sight) and they could not see the Messenger of Allah.
- ❑ After that, he (peace be upon him) visited the house of Abu Bakr, and then leaving from the window of his house, the two went out for Yemen at night and reached a cave in the mountain called Sor, located a few miles away.
- ❑ Along with Abu Bakr, he took refuge in Cave Sor for three days. 1st of Rabi al-Awwal i.e. on September 13, 622 CE, riding on camels to escape by nick and Thick, on Monday, September 20, 622 CE, on the outskirts of Madinah called Quba and stayed.
- ❑ Dated 12 Rabi al-Awwal i.e., Blessed Friday, 24 September 2022 he reached in Medina and offered Friday prayers in congregation.

Madinah is the holy land of the earth, it has different names like Taba, Tayyaba, Dar, Iman, Darul Hijra etc. Generally, this city is known as Madinah Munawarah, but it is not used here by the Salaf. When we say Madinah Munawarah, it will mean all the Islamic countries, because Islam enlightened all the places, so it is better to describe Madinah with a special prophetic attribute. Its old name is Yathrib, now it is forbidden to take this name.

In the light of the hadiths of the Prophet, there are countless virtues of Madinah of Prophethood, some virtues are presented:

- ❁ Madina of Nabi is a place of goodness and blessing: (Wal Madinahu khairulahum lo kawanu yalam'un. (Sahih al-Bukhari: 1875)
- ❁ It is Haram paak (Sanctity for worldly businesses and made pure for worship) : (Inha Haramun Amin) (Sahih Muslim: 1375)
- ❁ Protection of Madinah from Plague and Dajjal (Anti Christ) by Angels: (Sahih al-Bukhari: 7133)
- ❁ Madinah is where faith will stick (return as snake returns its hole) (Sahih Al-Bukhari: 1876)
- ❁ Love, Madinah: (Oh God, make Medina beloved to us as we love Mecca, or more Sahih Al-Bukhari: 1889)
- ❁ The intercession of the Prophet: Whoever is able to die in Medina should do so, for I will intercede for whoever dies in it (Al-Silsilah Al-Sahihah: 6/1034)
- ❁ Worthy of amazement for those who live in Madinah or were called by Allah to visit it. On this blessed land is the Prophet's Mosque, which he PBUH built with your blessed hands. The Messenger of Allah, may God bless him and grant him peace, ordered the visitation of this mosque: "La tush-do-ar-rahah except for three mosques: Masjid Al-Haram, Masjid al-Aqsa, and This Masjid" (Saheeh Bukhari: 1995).

Approximately 12 miles of Madinah is the Haram (Sanctity within which hunting, cutting trees, cutting grass is not prohibited. Yes, it is permissible to cut grass or leaves for animals.

أعن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال "المدينة حرم، من كذا إلى كذا، لا يقطع شجرها، ولا يحدث فيها حدث، من أحدث حدثا فعليه لعنة الله والملائكة والناس أجمعين".

On the authority of the Prophet, peace and blessings of God be upon him, he said: "The Madinah is sacred, from one place to another from (Mount Aahir to Shor) its trees are not be cut down, and no bidah or innovations should take place in it and if anyone brings any new things will be cursed by Allah, Angels and all of the mankind.

عن أبي هريرة أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال اللهم ان إبراهيم خليلك و نبيك و انك حرمت مكة على لسان إبراهيم اللهم و انا عبدك و نبيك و اني احرم ما بين لا بيتها الخ (ابن ماجه)

It is narrated from Abu Hurairah that the Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: O Allah! Hazrat Ibrahim (peace be upon him) was your friend and prophet on whose tongue you declared Makkah to be the Holy Land, O Allah! I am your servant and prophet and I declare Madinah forbidden between its two rocky edges. (Mount Aahir to Shor)

- This is enough for the precedence of Madinah that it is the place of migration, residence and burial of Hazrat Muhammad Mustafa PBUH , the leader of all prophets. From this holy and blessed land, the religion of Islam spread to the corners of the world. This city is also called Tayyaba and Taba (meaning center of purity). In this, the reward of good deeds increases many times.
- That the Messenger of Allah, may Allah bless him and grant him peace, said: Whoever can die in Madinah (i.e. can come here and stay until death) must prefer to pass away in Madinah, because I will intercede for the person who dies in Madinah. . (Tirmidhi)
- The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) prayed: "O Allah! Make the love of Medina more than the love of Makkah in our hearts, O Allah! Bless it in its "saa and mad" (measures). O Allah! Make the atmosphere of this city good and transfer its fever (heat) to Hajfa (valley)." (Sahih Al-Bukhari: 1889, Sahih Muslim: 1376)
- Once upon a time, the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) prayed for blessings: O Allah! Give twice as many blessings in Madinah as you have in Makkah.
- (Sahih al-Bukhari: 1875, Sahih Muslim: 1369)
- Once Prophet PBUH said this prayer: O Allah! Ibrahim (peace be upon him) declared Makkah Haram and prayed for the people of Makkah, I declare Madinah as Haram and invoke your blessing for its provisions twice compared to Makkah.

Seeking Counsel : Asked for advice about fighting the infidels at Badr and regarding the prisoners captured after the battle.

Justice and Equality: When Hazrat Sawda RZ (shirtless) was injured by Prophet's arrow while he (PBUH) was straightening the line (Army formation), Hazrat Sawda asked for revenge as Prophet lifted his shirt and said very gently go a head and take your revenge (upon which Sawda RZ hugged him PBUH)

Dua: Prophet was engaged in dhikr, azkar and dua till dawn and performed the duty of obedience (servantship)

Unseen Help: Allah's help does not come from simply boasting about the abundance of means and resources or turning away from them and engaging in supplications, but the people who, after using the means, make supplications with their hands by entrusting their affairs to the Lord, they seek help, Then Allah's help accompanies them.

Faith Precedes Everything: The Companions rose to the occasion to exalt the name of their Lord, and did not hesitate to confront unbelieving fathers, brothers and sons.

Zayd bin Thabit (RZ) says that the Messenger of Allah (PBUH) ordered me to learn some Jewish writing (language) for the Prophet PBUH . He PBUH said: "By Allah! I do not trust the documentation of the Jews, so it was not even half a month past, that I learned it for Prophet . He says: Then when I learned and Messenger of Allah had to write something and send it to the Jews, I wrote it and sent it to them, and when the Jews wrote something and sent it to you, I read their document((Writing) and explained to Messenger of Allah . (Sunan Tirmidhi: 2715)

Because if something was written from the Jews or read by them, in both cases there was a possibility of excess or deficiency by them, in view of this danger, he (PBUH) ordered Zayd bin Thabit to learn the language of the Jews, this concern and risk remains till today, and at the same time, it is necessary to learn other languages for the propagation of religion, so the Muslim Ummah should learn every language (digital /physical) in the world

- The Battle of Uhud took place on 17 Shawwal 3 AH (23 March 625 AD) between the Muslims and the polytheists of Mecca at the foot of Mount Uhud.
- The army of polytheists was led by Abu Sufyan and with more than 3000 men, he launched an attack on the Muslims and good preparations for it.
- The Muslims were led by the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him)
- The result of this war cannot be called victory or defeat because both sides suffered heavy losses and sometimes the Muslims prevailed and sometimes the polytheists but in the end the army of the polytheists gave up the fight and went back to Makkah.
- What can be the result of forgetting the instructions of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) or abandoning military discipline? If the people stationed at Dara Ainin had not left the pass, then the Muslims would have been victorious
- Defeat to some extent in this battle turned out to be a constructive as the Muslims learned some lessons that would be useful in subsequent wars. Muslims got an opportunity to see their mistakes. Allah revealed the Qur'an and assured believers not to be sad because in the end only the believers will prevail.
- Seventy Muslims were martyred in this war while twenty-seven polytheists were killed. Muslims buried their martyrs there.

- After the Battle of Uhud, it was decided between the Quraysh, the Jews and other idolatrous tribes of Arabia that Islam should be eradicated by coordinating together. In this regard, the first agreement was signed between Quraysh leader Abu Sufyan and Banu Nazir, a Jewish tribe expelled from Medina. After that, the representatives of Banu Nazir left for Najd for other idolatrous tribes like "Ghatfan and Bani Saleem persuaded them to wage war against the Muslims by paying tribute of city Khyber for one year.
- In Shawwal/ Dhul-Qa'da 5 AH (March 627), the polytheists of Makkah decided to start war with the Muslims. Abu Sufyan persuaded the Quraysh and other tribes, even the Jews, to fight the people and made several agreements in this regard and gathered a huge army and besieged Madinah .
- But the Muslims dug a trench around Madinah on the advice of Salman Farsi (RZ) The polytheists of Makkah could cause any harm to Muslims due to this. This was the first example of digging a trench in Arabia because it was originally the method of the Iranians.
- When the siege was prolonged, dissensions began to appear among Banu Quraizah, Quraysh, Ghatfan and other tribes and ill-will spread. Mistrust of each other arose and people began to emerge who were not in favor of continuing the war, These differences kept them busy until Allah's help came.
- One night there was a strong and cold wind which overthrew the tents of the polytheists and extinguished their lights. The atmosphere became dark due to heavy dust. The polytheists preferred to escape and headed for Makkah.
- Six Muslims were martyred in this war and more than eight people of the polytheists were killed and their financial loss was very severe . It was a glorious victory of the Muslims in which the strategy of digging a trench was of great use. The polytheists could not cope with the effects of this war for a long time Verses 9 to 25 of Surah Al-Ahzab were revealed about this battle.
- It battle is called Ghazwa Khandaq or Battle Ahzab. The name Ahzab is given because originally it was a collection of several tribes. This battle is mentioned in the Qur'an in Surah Al-Ahzab. This is the name of the "Trench" was also used as the trench was dug.
- One thing became clear from this war that trust in Jews is not right. The breach of agreement by Bani Quraiza opened the eyes of Muslims. Therefore, the Muslims decided teach a lesson to Banu Qurayzah, Thus Immediately after the Battle of the Trench they fought jews and it is called the Battle of the Banu Qurayzah.

- In Muharram 7 AH (May 628 AD), the Battle of Khyber took place between the Muslims and the Jews.
- Khyber was the center of the Jews, 150 kilometers from Madinah in the north-west of Arabia, from where they used to conspire with other Jewish tribes against the Muslims.
- These conspiracies include the actions of the Jews during the Battle of Trench and the Battle of Uhud. Apart from this, the Jews of Khyber had also sheltered the tribe of Bani Nazir, who conspired and participated in the battle of Trench against Muslims.
- So, The Muslims side started this war to end this problems. The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) led this battle and conquered the fort of Khyber and half of the produce of this lands came into management of Islamic government.
- Muhammad (PBUH) with an army of 1,600, of which a little over a hundred horsemen, marched towards Khyber with the intention of fighting them and after conquering five small forts Islamic army besieged Khyber fort, It was enemy's the largest and most important fort. The fort was built on a relatively high hill and its defenses were very strong.
- Hazrat Ali (RZ) plucked the gate of the fort which use take 20 men to open and placed it on the trench in front of the gate of the fort so that the army could enter the fort including the horsemen.
- In this victory 93 Jews were killed, and the fort was conquered. Muslims won a great victory.
- The Holy Prophet (peace be upon him) allowed the Jews to remain in Khyber as before at their request and made an agreement with them to give half of their income to be paid in Jizya to the Muslims and the Muslims will reserve the right to expel them from Khyber if it becomes necessary.
- Safiya RZ the daughter of Hai bin Akhtab, the chief of Banu Nazir, was also captured in this war, and the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) freed her and married her.

- ❑ The rules and regulations that were formulated to establish Islamic nation's relations with other countries were related to foreign policy, These relationship were based on the principles and rules of mutual agreements abiding multinational laws, constituted within international law and Islamic foreign policy is a mirror of Islamic international law.
- ❑ From the point of view of defense where the Holy Prophet Hazrat Muhammad PBUH took unparalleled brave decisions in battles and wars, More than these he also adopted according to the needs and circumstances. Many treaties with foreign tribes on constitutional basis. These tribes and regions became a part of the political unity of Islam as if they had become a part of the Madinah Empire. The Prophet (peace be upon him) made several agreements with the neighboring tribes for tolerance and peaceful purposes and ensured the defense of Madinah.
- ❑ The Prophet (peace be upon him) made the agreements with allies and rival tribes often on harmonious grounds in which the interests, rights and defense of the parties were considered on priority . Among these agreements, one of the most important agreements from a historical point of view was the Peace of treaty of Hdaybiyah, which apparently was a blow to the feelings of the Muslims and as it according to conditions offered by the Quraish, but in terms of its results, it was a great victory which strongly demonstrated Prophet Muhammad PBUH's political insight. Thanks to this agreement, Muslims achieved great goals as follows
 1. The communication routes between the Muslims of Madinah and the polytheists of Makkah were opened and the journey of the propagation of Islam became easier.
 2. By getting rid of the fears of war and conflict, opportunities arose to run the administration of the state and to invite foreign governments to the religion of Islam.
 3. by becoming carefree of Quraysh's reaction, the other Arab tribes got freedom whoever wanted to support the government of Madinah, so people started entering the circle of Islam in large numbers
 4. Thanks to the prophetic wisdom and expert strategy of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) soon the State of Madinah had diplomatic relations with the foreign tribes, the heads of various kingdoms and the chiefs and it started engagement with them.

The last prophet and messenger of Allah, Hazrat Muhammad Mustafa (peace be upon him) left no stone unturned in his efforts to spread Islam. For this purpose, he sent several letters to the kings and rulers outside the Arabian Peninsula inviting them to Islam. These writings were an important means of conveying the call of religion to the people.

In the sixth year of Hijrah the peaceful period between the Quraysh and the Muslims was taken advantage of by the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and he used it for the internationalization of Islam.

The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) sent letters to many rulers and kings. Among them were Najashi of Abyssinia(Ethiopia), Heraclius The Great of Rome, King of Persia Khosrow II, Ruler of Egypt Rah Muqawqis, Emir of Bahrain Munzar bin Sawi, the Amir of Yamamah, Hauza al-Hanafi, the King of Oman, the ruler of Yemen and the Amir of the kingdom of Ghassan (Levant and northern Arabia) were included.

In the prophetic letters sent to the kings and rulers as an invitation to Islam, the names and titles and addresses of these personalities are also seen. At the end of these letters also this inscribed where it said, "If you refuse this invitation, the calamity (sin) of your followers will also be upon you."

According to historical narrations, The King of Persia Khosrow II tore the letter of the Prophet of Islam by saying, "One of my subjects writes his name before me". When the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) came to know about this incident, he (peace be upon him) said, "May Allah destroy his kingdom like drops of mercury" Then it came to happen as the Prophet (PBUH) had said. After some time Khosrow II was killed by his son and his kingdom was disintegrated.

Some of the letters sent by the Prophet of Islam to some kings and rulers have been preserved in the museum in Istanbul, while copies of these letters are kept in the exhibition of objects related to the Holy Prophet in Madinah.

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم محمد عبد الله ورسوله
 الرهر قل عظم الروم سلام على من اتبع الهدى أما بعد
 فاني ادعوك دعيا بها لا سلاما سلم سلاميوك الله
 اخركم سرقا ربوليت فمليت اهل الارض ويا اهل
 عالوا الر كلمه سوا ساو سكم ا لا بعد الا الله
 ولا سرك به سى ولا بعد بمصا بمصار يا اهل
 دوسا لله فان بولوا فموا لولا سعد و يا اهل
 لور

(نص يحكي رسالة الرسول ﷺ إلى هرقل قيصر الروم)

In the name of Allah, the Gracious, the Merciful. "From Muhammad, the servant of Allah and His Messenger
 "To Heraclius, the emperor of Byzantine "Peace be upon those who follow the Guidance.

"Furthermore, I invite you to Islam; embrace Islam and you will find peace, and Allah will reward you twofold. However, if you turn away, you will also bear the sin of 'Arisiyyin [your subjects].

"And 'O People of the Book! come to a word equal between us and you — that we worship none but Allah, and that we associate no partner with Him, and that some of us take not others for Lords beside Allah.' But if they turn away, then say, 'Bear witness that we have submitted [to God].' [Surah Aal-e-Imran, Ch.3: V65]."

The Conquest of Makkah (also known as the Great Conquest) is a campaign of the Prophet's era that took place on 20 Ramadan 8 Hijri , corresponding to 10 January 630 AD.

Due this conquest, the Muslims got the victory over the city of Makkah.

The reason for this invasion was the violation of the treaty between the Quraysh of Makkah and the Muslims, that is, the Quraysh of Makkah had their ally, the Banu d Dha'el bin Bakr bin Abd Manat bin Kanana (a special branch of it called Banu Nafaasa) had helped in the massacre against Banu Khaza'ah and since Banu Khaza'ah was an allied tribe of the Muslims, the Quraysh in Makkah attack was considered a violation of the treaty that had been concluded between the Muslims and the Quraish, known as the "Peace of Hdaybiyyah".

In response to the violation of this treaty, the Prophet (peace be upon him) raised a great army consisting of ten thousand Mujahideen; The army continued to advance until it reached Makkah and entered Makkah peacefully without any resistance except for a minor skirmish with Islamic general Khalid bin Walid RZ when a group of Quraish led by Akrama bin Abi Jahl attacked and resisted the Muslims, In Response then Khalid bin Waleed had counter charge them, as a result of which twelve non believers were killed and the rest fled, while two Muslims were also martyred. When the Prophet PBUH entered Makkah and the people were at ease, He (PBUH) reached the Kaaba and circumambulated it. While circumambulating the Kaaba, he would push down the idols around the Kaaba with his arrow While reading «جاء الحق وزهق الباطل إن الباطل كان زهوقاً» meaning "Truth has now arrived, and Falsehood has perished: for Falsehood by its very own nature is bound to perish."

After the conquest of Makkah, many circles of residents converted to Islam, among which the chief leaders of the Quraysh and Kanana Abu Sufyan and his wife Hind Bint Utba. Similarly, Akrama bin Abu Jahl, Suhail bin umru, Safwan bin Umayyah and Abu Bakr Siddiq's RZ father Abu Qahafa are worth mentioning.

After the victory, the Prophet (peace be upon him) granted amnesty (General pardon) to all.

Ghazwat and Saraya occurred in the life of the Prophet ﷺ

- ❑ Ghazwa generally refers to such a battle in which the Messenger of Allah, may God bless him and grant him peace, has personally participated.
- ❑ Sariya/Saraya refers to the Battles in which the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) did not visit himself but sent the Companions under the leadership of one of the Companion.
- ❑ According to the narrations of Ibn Saad, the number of Ghazwat were 27 and the number of Saraya were 47.
- ❑ Some historians disagree with this and give the number of Ghazwat as 25 and the number of Saraya as 48 and some add the incident of Tabuk and give the number of Ghazwat as 28.
- ❑ A total of 148 Muslims were martyred in all the battles. 293 infidels were killed and 6070 became prisoners of war.
- ❑ See details of Ghazwat on next page:

The conquests of Prophet

The Battle of Wadan which is the Battle of Al-Abwa took place in Safar in the year 2 AH

The Battle Buwat took place in Rabi' al-Awwal in the year 2 AH

The Battle of Safwan, or the First Battle of Badr, took place in Rabi' al-Awwal in the year 2 AH

The Battle of Dhu al-Asharah took place in Jumada al-Akhirah in the year 2 AH.

The Great Battle of Badr took place in Ramadan in the year 2 AH.

The Battle of Banu Qaynuqa took place in Shawwal of the year 2 AH

The Battle of Al-Suwaiq took place in Dhul-Hijjah in the year 2 AH

The Battle of Qarqara al-Kadr, or the Battle of Banu Saleem, took place in Muharram al-Haram in the year 2 AH

The Battle of Dhu Amir, the Battle of Ghatafan, or the Battle of Anmar took place in Rabi' al-Awwal in the year 3 AH

The Battle of Uhad took place in 5 Shawwal of the year 3 AH

The Battle of Hamra al-Asad The Battle of Uhad took place the day after the Battle of Uhud, Shawwal 7, 3 AH

The Battle of Banu Nazir took place in Rabi' al-Awwal in the year 4 AH

The other Battle of Badr took place in Dhul-Qi'dah in the year 4 AH

The Battle of Dumat al-Jandal took place in Rabi' al-Awwal in the year 5 AH

The Battle of Banu Al-Mustaliq, or Al-Muraisi took place in Shaaban Al-Muazzam in the year 5 AH

The Battle of Al-Ahzab or the Trench took place in Shawwal Muharram or in Dhul-Qa'dah in the year 5 AH

The Battle of Banu Qurayza took place in Dhul-Hijjah in the year 6 AH

The Battle of Banu Lahyan took place in Rabi' al-Awwal in the year 6 AH

The Battle of Dhu Qarad or Al Ghabah took place in Rabi' al-Aqir of the year 6 AH

The Battle of Hdaybiyyah took place Dhul-Qi'dah 6 AH

The Battle of Khaybar took place in Muharram al-Haram in the year 7 AH

The Battle of Wadi Al-Qura took place in Muharram Al-Haram in the year 7 AH

The Battle of Dhat al-Riqa' took place in Muharram Al-Haram in the year 7 AH

The conquest of Mecca took place in Ramadan in the year 8 AH

The Battle of Hunayn, Awtas, or Hawazin took place in Shawwal in the year 8 AH

The Battle of Tai'f took place in Shawwal in the year 8 AH

The Battle of Tabuk took place in Raj'ab in the year 9 AH

Umm Ma'bad drew a map of the attributes and perfections of the Holy Prophet in a very attractive way, as if he was looking at the Prophet in front of him. Umm Mabad description of Sarwar Kunin s in best possible words that are worthy to be written down with silhouette rose ink.

The complexion is shining, the face is radiant, the structure is very beautiful, neither the defect any sort nor the defect of baldness, the figure is molded with handsomeness

Gray eyes, long eyelashes, heavy voice, long neck, white and black eyes, thin and intertwined eyebrows, shiny black hair.

If He PBUH is quiet with great dignity, then when speak great eloquent attraction.

When looked at him PBUH from a distance, He PBUH appear radiant and Handsome, up close it is beautiful and charming, sweetness in conversation, clarity in speech, neither too long nor too short and conduct as pearl dropping from necklace.

Moderate height, neither short which is looks unpleasant or awkwardly long, a branch between two branches which is the freshest and most beautiful to sight.

Friends would form circle around you, listening attentively to what you said. If He PBUH gives an order they would rush to do it, He PBUH use to look gentle and graceful, neither bitter nor absurd.

- "Hazrat Umar bin Al-Khattab (RZ) may Allah be pleased with him, narrates that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) smiled and he (peace be upon him) had the most beautiful teeth of all people."
- Hazrat Abdullah bin Abbas (RZ) narrates that there was a gap in the front teeth of the Holy Prophet (SAW) and when he (SAW) spoke, it looked as if he was in front of him (SAW). Rays of light are emanating from the auspicious tooth."
- Shanaya, the front teeth and of which the two upper ones are called "SanayaAliya" and the two lower ones are called "Sanaya Sufili". Those which are usually seen smiling, are "Sanaya Alia".
- And in the battle of Uhud, the Messenger of Allah, may God bless him and grant him peace, had a blessed tooth that was "Raba'yah" i.e. the tooth next to the Shanaya.

The Holy Prophet (PBUH) used to have sideburns or long hairs, the blessed hair was sometimes up to half of the ear, sometimes up to the earlobe, and when it grew, it touched the blessed shoulder. It used to grow up to half of the neck, then fell on the shoulders, at that time the Prophet (peace be upon him) used to cut it again. Thus, keeping is up to shoulders is permissible but not below the shoulders.

Ibn Uthaymeen (may Allah have mercy on him) says:

"The Companions used to receive blessings from the sweat, saliva, clothes, and hair of the Prophet PBUH, but it is not correct to seek blessings any leftovers of anyone other than the Prophet, therefore, It is not permissible to seek blessings from any person's clothing, hair, nails and other items, only permissible to seek the blessing from leftovers of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) The last "Sharh Riyaz al-Salihin" (4 / 243)

- It is proven that he (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) wore a jabba, longshirt (Kamees), kurta, hat and lungi etc and buying a shalwar is also proven from hadiths. However, he (PBUH) liked the shirt (Kamees) very much It is proved by different attributes of hadiths:
- There was a collar in the chest.
- The sleeves were up to the hand.
- The sleeves were neither too tight nor too wide.
- In length it was from above the ankles to the shins.
- the authority of Umm Salamah, may God be pleased with her, she said:

- ❑ Even before the declaration of prophethood, the Holy Prophet (PBUH) used to be engaged in Allah's worship for a long time in cave of Hira. Later when he PBUH announced the prophethood, he PBUH was ordered to pray (Salat) and he started performing it. The beginning he PBUH used to pray in secret.
- ❑ Even in the Nonobligatory prayers, Prophet would be moved to tears with divine fear towards Allah with such humility, devotion and love that he PBUH would be free from all thoughts of the world and would be very close to the Almighty.
- ❑ He PBUH used to recite Tahajjud and in the beginning as it was obligatory upon him PBUH to pray Tahajjud. After some time, He PBUH started 2 rakkats in the morning and evening. It is mentioned in the Holy Qur'an as follows: "Remember the name of your Lord in the morning and in the evening and prostrate to Him until late at night and glorify Him." (Surah Al-Muzmal).
- ❑ Commentators say that the order to pray late at night remained for a year, after that the night prayer became Nonobligatory instead of obligatory. After the Tahajjud became Nonobligatory, Prophet PBUH used to pray a lot in the night and use have long recitations in the salat. Later, when the five prayers in congregation became obligatory, he performed this duty very gracefully till his last breath, When he PBUH migrated from Makkah and settled in Madinah Sharif, here he completely organized time of al-Salawat.
- ❑ Hazrat Aisha Siddiqa said: There is an incident of one night that the Holy Prophet came to me and laid down. Then he said, "Leave me to worship my Lord." After saying this, he stood up for prayer and started crying. Until the tears flowed and reached the Blessed One's chest, then he bowed down and continued to cry in the same way while bowing down, then he fell into prostration and this continued. Then After raising his head from prostration, he continued to cry even then, until Bilal RZ came and called for Fajr prayer. I said, O Messenger of Allah, you (PBUH) are crying so much You are innocent. The Holy Prophet said, "Should I not be a grateful servant?" (i.e. he used to pray so much that his (PBUH) feet swelled)
- ❑ It is narrated in Muslim Sharif from Hazrat Huzaifa RZ that one night I agreed to pray with the Holy Prophet. Holy Prophet started Surah Baqarah, I thought you would recite up to hundred verses, but when you continued reading it, I said in my heart, maybe you want to finish the whole Surah in one Rak'at. So, when you finished this Surah, I thought you would now bow down, but you immediately started Surah Al-Imran and that too ended, then started Surah Nisa.

There is a consensus that the Prophet (PBUH) died on a Monday in the month of Rabi'ul Awwal, 11 Hijri.

But there is a disagreement about what was the date?

According to Ibn Ishaq and most scholars, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) died on the 12th of Rabi al-Awwal.

The same saying is preferred:

- Allama Ibn Katheer (The Biography of the Prophethood),
- Sulaiman Mansoor Puri (Rahmatulilalameen, The mercy of the universes),
- Safi-ur-Rehman Mubarakpuri (Al-Raheeq Al-Makhtoum, The sealed nectar)
- Dr. Mehdi Rizkullah (Al-Sira Sahihiya, the Biographic per authentic books)
- Dr. Mohammad Salabi (Sirat-ul-Nabi),
- Dr. Akram Zia Umri (The True Biography of the Prophet),
- Allama Al-Bani (Sahih Biography of the Prophethood)
- Fatwas of the Standing Committee (4/381)